Our Gospel today begins a five-week series of Jesus’ teaching from the Sermon on the Mount. And what we hear today is some of the most well-known words of Jesus: the Beatitudes. While we have heard them often, as with most things that are familiar, they can lose some of its meaning.

The Beatitudes are a formula for Christian discipleship. Jesus tells us how we are to be blessed, or happy. But it is not in the way that we usually think. Jesus turns our own ideas about happiness upside down with the Beatitudes. Blessed are the poor in spirit, the mournful, the meek, the merciful, the persecuted. In our world, poverty, meekness and mercy are not valued; in fact, they are often denigrated and we are deemed foolish for seeking to embrace them. This is what St. Paul reminds us of in the second reading, that God chose the foolish to shame the wise and the weak to shame the strong. It is by God’s power that we go forward to proclaim the Good News.

It is through these actions listed in the Beatitudes that we do become blessed and happy indeed. By extending our hand to another, by seeking peace and justice, by working on our relationship with God and one another, by our gentleness and kindness, we bring forward the Reign of God in our midst.

Jesus himself embodied all of these traits. And not that I need to add to what Jesus said, but I believe that all of the Beatitudes can be summed up with one more: Blessed are they who love, for they will know God. It is love that underpins all of the Beatitudes. It is love that underpins the entirety of our Christian life. Let us pray for a deeper love and commitment to follow Christ through our practice of the Beatitudes.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As a new year begins, I want to assure you of my prayers for you, your families, and your parish communities. I also want to share some important information about Renew My Church.

As you may already know, Renew My Church is an archdiocesan initiative that involves all the people of the archdiocese and their faith communities. The goal of Renew My Church is to make our parishes more vital and more sustainable. We do this not on our own initiative but in response to the call of Christ, which was first heard by those disciples recounted in today’s gospel. The call is the same as it was in those early days of the Church: to be His disciples and take responsibility for carrying on His mission in our time. The place to start is by working together to make our parishes vibrant communities that form missionary disciples of Jesus. This will also mean being realistic about our limited human and material resources and evaluating how our present structures may need to be organized differently to keep pace with changing realities.

A very important part of the process of Renew My Church are the parish groupings that will work to plan for the future and discern where God is leading us. After receiving consultation and feedback from you, the priests of the diocese, and parish pastoral councils, we are announcing the groupings today. Your parish will be part of a grouping that will enable you to assess, plan, and discern how best to meet the needs of the future in a way that is both reasonable and in conformity with God’s will for us.

Each grouping will have guidance for its process of reflection and discernment. Everything, however, begins with building relationships across parishes in a given grouping. That means getting to know each other and perhaps sharing some common projects or events, such as retreats, lectures, or community service for those in need. With future guidance and facilitation, this will develop in more specific planning and discernment directions. Today, your pastor will share a list of the parishes in your grouping.

Renew My Church will undoubtedly involve leaving behind familiar patterns and demand that we move outside our comfort zones. In a word, it will require sacrifice, but that has always been true for the Church whenever we have taken up new challenges. I am convinced that we are up to the task, and willing to do whatever it takes to build our capacity to pass on our faith to future generations. That is what is at stake in the Renew My Church process. I encourage you to become involved and pray for its success.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago
Per the late American actress Ava Gardner “Deep down, I’m pretty superficial.” Paradoxical, no? Paradoxical, yes. According to dictionary.com, “paradox” is defined in part as “A statement or proposition that seems self-contradictory or absurd but in reality expresses a possible truth,” and “Any person, thing, or situation exhibiting an apparently contradictory nature,” and finally, “An opinion or statement contrary to commonly accepted opinion.” The term comes to mind because as I consider the readings for today, the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time, the idea of paradox screams at me (albeit quietly…).

Zephaniah gets the ball rolling, writing at a time when Israel is again misbehaving (per my New American Bible, “The age of Zephaniah was a time of religious degradation, when the old idolatries reappeared and men worshipped sun, moon, and stars. Rites completely alien to the pure monotheism taught by Moses flourished in Jerusalem”), and is again under attack (as I understand it, Judah is dealing with the effects of Assyrian oppression at the time and is bracing for more of the same from Babylon). And yet Zephaniah tells the people to remain honest, humble, peaceable—when many Israelites are not—so they will be spared come the day of the Lord.

The Apostle Paul keeps the theme going in his Letter to the Corinthians, continuing where he left off last week discussing the paradox of the cross: “Consider your own calling, brothers and sisters. Not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth…” Please keep in mind the definitions of paradox above, particularly in this case, “An opinion or statement contrary to commonly accepted opinion…” Paul goes on: “Rather, God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong, and God chose the lowly and despised of the world, those who account for nothing, to reduce to nothing those who are something.” Paradoxical, no? Paradoxical, way way way yes.

And Jesus in his Sermon on the Mount is the very embodiment of the paradoxical messages delivered by Zephaniah and Paul. “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land…” I can go on, but the point is already made. And remember that the sermon—this lesson in the meaning of discipleship—is delivered right after Jesus calls his first followers. If I’m Simon or Andrew or James or John, I’m probably thinking, “Uh…what have I signed up for here?” But perhaps they signed up for the same thing several friends and I (and thousands more) signed up for two weeks ago when we participated in Chicago’s March for Life: a truth that many see as nonsense. Or worse. Deep down, I’m pretty superficial, too, but I understand paradox. And while I fail often, my goal is to live it.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Jo Polark (mpolark@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary Jo to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Jo Polark (mpolark@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary Jo confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
