“Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit, and they shall be created and you shall renew the face of the earth.”

This traditional prayer to the Holy Spirit speaks to us about the dynamic potential of the Spirit working within us and within our world. Through the Spirit of God working within us, the Spirit we received at our baptism, we are re-created and made new. We receive the spark of God's divine love to help us go forth in love and hope.

Today, as we celebrate Pentecost Sunday, the day when we remember the first coming of the Holy Spirit upon Mary and the disciples after the resurrection and ascension of Jesus, we are called to embrace the Spirit in our lives. This can always be challenging -- to be open to where the Spirit urges us to go -- in part because we cannot control the Spirit. Often this new birth in the Spirit, a renewal or re-creation of our hearts and minds, can sound like a painful process. But as Christ said time and again in the gospels: “Do not be afraid.” Do not be afraid of following the promptings of God's Spirit within you, even when you are called out of your comfort zone or into the unknown. It is only through our following of the Spirit that we can go forth to proclaim God's love and mercy to others through our lives and actions. It is only through our following of the Spirit that we can be renewed personally, and that our Church and world can be renewed, to discover again the peace and joy of a relationship with Christ.

Pentecost is often referred to as the “birthday” of the Church. On this day, the disciples went forth from the room in which they were hiding to boldly proclaim God's love and salvation. On this day, we are invited as a parish community to reflect on how we can be renewed, how the fire of love can be kindled or re-kindled in our hearts and in those of the people around us. We are called to live out the mission of Christ in our daily lives through our words and actions. We are called to be generous in all aspects of our being. Like other birthdays, it is a time to celebrate, but also a time to move forward. The Spirit is always at work within us and that Pentecost moment is recreated time and again in our individual lives and in the life of the Church. We are invited to pray for an outpouring of God's Spirit in our lives and community, that we truly can be renewed. Come Holy Spirit!

Stewardship of Treasure

Parishioners at St. Vincent de Paul know that stewardship isn't just about money. It's also about caring for God's gifts and the treasures we've inherited from previous generations. Our church building is the perfect example—it requires the support, dedication, and generosity of our parishioners to maintain for our use and enjoyment, and for us to be able to pass it along to future generations.

During the Archdiocesan capital campaign, To Teach Who Christ Is, more than 70,000 men and women from across our archdiocese pledged over $400 million to support parish growth and infrastructure and to secure the future of Catholic Education. Our parish alone pledged over $800,000!

St. Vincent de Paul is nearing the midpoint of the gift fulfillment stage of this momentous campaign. 56% of all gifts to the campaign are being returned to St. Vincent to support parish-specific objectives like much-needed maintenance on our building.

At this point in the campaign, anticipated fulfillment for St. Vincent de Paul is approximately $331,000 against an anticipated amount of $365,000.

St. Vincent is continuing repairs on our church this summer, including repairs to our slate roof—which turns 120 years old this year—as well as repairs to and strengthening of the stained glass window frames (pictured here).

Depending on funding, we also hope to refinish the outside wooden doors, make some repairs to the heating system and install new outdoor lighting at the Webster Street entrance. You will notice construction equipment around the church over the next few weeks, but all work will be done Monday-Friday, and our weekend Mass schedule will remain the same.

So much has already been accomplished, and we are excited to see the fruits of our efforts. Your continued commitment and loyalty to St. Vincent are deeply appreciated.

ON GHOSTS, MOVIE-WISE, AND OTHERWISE
Copyright 2017 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

While my wife and I have seen all of the Pirates of the Caribbean movies so far, I’m not sure we’ll see the latest installment, Dead Men Tell No Tales. Why? Because the Chicago Tribune gave it a one-star review. One star. Life is short, and I don’t have time for one-star movies. Based on the review, the head pirate ghost, played by Javier Bardem, is out to get revenge on the Johnny Depp character, Jack Sparrow. Here we go again. The Trib gave the film a low rating for poor plot, poor acting, poor pretty much everything, but good special effects. The one-star review is unfortunate, because I’ve enjoyed the franchise. I liked the first entry the best. We saw it in Denver on a family vacation years ago. As I write this, Gail and I are headed north to see our son Paul and his wife Annie in upper Wisconsin, and we’d hoped to take them to see the film somewhere, then find a supper club for dinner. Maybe not now. The movie, I mean. The supper club’s still a hopeful go.

But back to the ghosts. In the Pirates movies, the pirate ghosts are up to no good. Revenge, mostly. But today we celebrate a ghost of a different color and intent. Pentecost, a celebration of the Holy Spirit, aka Ghost. I grew up with the Holy Ghost, and while I think this Third Person gets the short shrift in the whole trinity conversation—which continues next week in earnest—I remain a fan. A huge fan, actually. Seems the Ghost has morphed into the Spirit over the years, though. Per a Catholic website I stumbled upon not long ago, “Some of this came about because words don’t always hold their meanings. In the days of Shakespeare or King James, ‘ghost’ meant the living essence of a deceased person…As language evolved, people started saying ‘ghost’ when speaking of the vision of a dead person while ‘spirit’ became the standard term for life or living essence, often also for ‘soul.’ With slight exceptions, ‘ghost’ and ‘spirit’ changed places over some 300 years.”

But “a rose by any other name...” you know? There’s an intangible something flowing through us. That’s the Ghost: the spark, the life, the essence in each of us that makes us...the each of us. I love this celebration of Spirit, especially today’s first reading. “And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind.” Go Ghost! “Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each of them.” Go, Ghost! “They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, ‘Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language?’” Go, Ghost! To paraphrase the Lion, “I do, I do, I do believe in ghosts!” Maybe not the up-to-no-good ghosts in the movie franchise, but for sure the life-giving Ghost we toast today. “There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God...To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” The pirate ghosts got one star, but we’ve got a four-star entry, and then some. Go, go, go, Ghost!

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion.
