Have you ever noticed how much our lives revolve around food? We often don’t even think about it. We get up in the morning, we think about breakfast. After breakfast, we go to work or school for a few hours, then we eat lunch. We go back to work for a few hours, then start preparing dinner. Each and every day is centered around food: breakfast, lunch, dinner, an afternoon or late-night snack. Probably some of you right now are thinking about what you will eat after mass.

And in many ways, it is the same with us as Church. Our lives as Catholics revolve around food: the nourishment we receive from the Eucharist. The Second Vatican Council taught that the Eucharist is “the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows.” The Eucharist is the main focus of the Mass. As nice as the music is, as good as the preaching may be, we gather to receive the Eucharist, to truly receive the Lord Jesus. The high point of every Mass is the Eucharistic Prayer and the reception of communion.

Because it is true that we are what we eat. But just as someone who only eats pizza will begin to look very round like a pizza, when we receive Christ in the Eucharist, we become more like Christ. St. Augustine once said, “Receive what you are and become what you receive.” As the Body of Christ, we receive the Body of Christ, and we become more fully Christ to others.

St. Paul said in our second reading, “The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?” To participate in the Body and Blood of Christ, means to share in the very life of Christ. It means to be truly united with Christ and with one another, not just metaphorically or symbolically.

We are called to share in Christ’s ministry of peace and reconciliation. We are called to share in Christ’s suffering and death. We are called to share in Christ’s resurrection to new life.

When we offer the gifts of bread and wine to be consecrated, we also offer ourselves. We offer our joys and sufferings, our happiness and pain. We offer ourselves to be made holy, to become the Body and Blood of Christ in our wounded world. Our lives are a living sacrifice, united to the one sacrifice of Jesus.

Jesus gave himself completely to us. If we are the Body and Blood of Christ, we will give ourselves totally to him out of love. We will give ourselves totally to others out of love. Like Christ, we are broken so that others may be nourished. Like Christ, our blood is poured out to bring healing to others.

As we continue our celebration of the Eucharist today, let us pray that, as we receive him, we may be transformed into Christ. Let us become what we eat.
Father’s Day Prayer

God our Father,
You govern and protect your people
and shepherd them with a father’s love.
You place a father in a family
as a sign of your love, care and constant protection.

May fathers everywhere be faithful to the example shown in the Scriptures:
steadfast in love, forgiving transgressions,
sustaining the family, caring for those in need.

Give your wisdom to fathers that they may encourage and guide their children.
Keep them healthy
so they may support a family.

Guide every father
with the Spirit of your love that they may grow in holiness and draw their family ever closer to you.
Amen.
The Vincentian Mission: Welcoming the Stranger

June 20 is World Refugee Day

Since 2001, the United Nations and more than 100 countries worldwide observe World Refugee Day on June 20th.

St. Vincent is preparing to sponsor our second refugee family, due to arrive in Chicago this summer. Our sponsorship of this family coincides with the Vincentian Family’s worldwide celebration of the 400th anniversary of the establishment of the Vincentian charism.

To commemorate the 400th anniversary, the Vincentian Family has launched the Welcoming the Stranger Initiative. Together, we are working to address the refugee crisis and find homes for displaced peoples.

To commemorate the 400th anniversary of the Vincentian charism, the Vincentian Family has launched a new initiative: WELCOMING THE STRANGER

The Refugees Crisis: Six Facts

• According to the United Nations, there are 59.5 million displaced people around the world.

• Nearly 20 million of these people are refugees—10 million are without a country.

• An average of 42,500 people per day flee their homes to seek protection within the borders of their own country or other countries.

• In the last year alone, there have been 13.9 million people newly displaced.

• 89% of the world's refugees are hosted by developing countries.

• Of the 20 million refugees worldwide, 51% are under the age of 18.

Sign the petition sponsored by The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees at #WithRefugees to send a message of action, solidarity, and responsibility on behalf of refugees to governments worldwide. The campaign will continue until a global agreement for refugees is signed in 2018.

On World Refugee Day, held every year on June 20th, we commemorate the strength, courage and perseverance of millions of refugees. This year, World Refugee Day also marks a key moment for the public to show support for families forced to flee.

Clara is Venezuelan, but she understands what it means to be a person uprooted from home and the kind of obstacles they can face. Her compassion for helping displaced people comes from her family’s experience of living as refugees in Venezuela.

Around 16 years ago, her mother, Soledad, and three older brothers crossed the border after being threatened by armed groups in Colombia. “They wanted to forcibly recruit my oldest brother,” says Clara.

When they arrived in Venezuela, Soledad was already expecting twins. Once they were born, both of them integrated into the community, but Clara is conscious of the restrictions and distress the family experienced during the asylum procedure. “After my family were formally recognized as refugees, we felt more integrated,” she says.

Clara’s family wants to stay in Venezuela. Clara is awaiting a scholarship that will allow her to join a soccer school and work towards her ultimate goal — representing Venezuela in the national team.

Through our Group Training Event, you can take part in our community discussion to learn more about refugee issues.

Enter the Rice Bowl Challenge:
What can Catholic stewards do with 62.6 pounds of change?

More than 13,000 faith communities participated in Catholic Relief Services’ Operation Rice Bowl last Lent, and St. Vincent de Paul was one of those participants. At the parish Fish Fry, and through other individual efforts, we collected a lot of change—in fact, we are donating 62.6 pounds of it!

Guess how much change is in the bowl pictured here. The person who comes closest without going over wins a free summer polo shirt with the St. Vincent logo.

How is our change changing the world? By supporting Operation Rice Bowl, we are helping with:

• Agriculture projects to help farmers
• Water and sanitation projects
• Microfinance projects to help small businesses
• Mother and child health projects
• Education projects provide resources and training

Also, 25% of our donations go to hunger and poverty alleviation efforts right here in our community.

Catholic Relief Services eases suffering and provides assistance to people in need in more than 100 countries, without regard to race, religion or nationality. Your generosity also supports overseas relief.

To enter the stewardship challenge, complete the section below, tear it off, and drop it in the collection basket. We will announce the winner on June 25.

Enter me in the Rice Bowl Challenge!

ON FATHER'S DAY WISDOM, AND EVERYBODY'S DAD
Copyright 2017 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

“It’s medicinal…” That’s my usual lead-in when I offer my wife one of those Dove dark chocolate squares after dinner. I haven’t paid much attention to the research, but I know the research is out there. Something about dark chocolate being high in antioxidants that attack free radicals, the bad guys in our blood associated with heart disease and other bad news. And something, too, about dark chocolate being able to help lower blood pressure. Mostly I enjoy the little squares because they’re delish. The health benefits are nice, though. I also like the sayings hidden in the wrappers. And given that we celebrate Father’s Day today, here’s one that I came upon not long ago: Quote your dad.

My father, the greatest man I’ve ever known, actually didn’t have many sayings, many maxims, many nuggets of insight. He didn’t have much to say, period, and yet he taught me plenty, and to this day I pray that he’s proud of me. A friend and work colleague, Pat Foy, passed away unexpectedly a few days ago leaving a wife and two kids behind. If these kids ever want to quote their dad, they have a whole list of Foy-isms to choose from, sayings that Pat spoke in the workplace and that were posted at his wake. Things like, “Why chase the white whale?” and “The prisoners are the ones who take all the arrows” and “We’ll hook up at the Taco Grande.” Another good man gone.

Still with us is a good man whose amazing life remains in play. Russ Gremel. Per the Chicago Tribune headline recently, “98-year-old had ‘good life; gives away $2M…Walgreens shares go to Audubon for wildlife sanctuary.” My wife and I know Russ because as a local Boy Scout troop’s Scoutmaster, he led our son Paul to his Eagle award. I knew that Russ retired early to spend more time with the Scouts. I knew he was able to do this by living frugally and making some good investments. The Tribune piece filled in the blanks. “Nearly 70 years ago, a young Russ Gremel decided to buy about $1,000 worth of stock in a Chicago-based pharmacy chain…” Amazing.

Gail and I went to the wildlife dedication ceremony at the Amboy Marsh Nature Preserve near Dixon, IL. I met a guy there who told me he was one of Russ’s Eagle Scouts from 1957. Or ’58. The guy said he couldn’t remember. Does it matter? Russ Gremel never married and never fathered any children, and yet he has been a father to countless boys over the years, including my son. So when Russ got up to say a few words, the crowd listened. He said lots of quotable things that day, but the two things I’m remembering now are “Don’t be afraid to live the life you want to live,” and “You have to do some good in this world.” Certainly these two go hand-in-hand. America sets aside the third Sunday of June every year to celebrate the good men who take on the difficult role of fatherhood. Here’s to my own father, then. And here’s to Pat Foy (we’ll hook up at the Taco Grande, my friend…). And here’s also to Russ Gremel, the non-father that fathered so many, so well. Good men, every one, and such models for those of us still in the game! Happy Father’s Day.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.
