Do you notice how much fun children have? I remember when I was younger in the lazy days of summer. I could get up late. I would have no plans except to have fun: playing baseball or football, going to the pool, riding my bike with friends. Life was simple and filled with simple joys and pleasures.

But then we get older. We have more responsibilities, more pressures, more stress. We don't have time to simply enjoy ourselves. We are attached to our phones. We have to schedule fun. We are busy people. There is always something else to do, more work to be done. And all of this work, all of this stress makes us very tired.

But eventually we have to say, “STOP!” We need to realize that we can never do everything that we think we need to do. Sometimes we have to pause, we have to just simply be. We need to spend time with our friends and families, seemingly wasting time. Because that is what is most important. No one ever says on their deathbed that they wished they spent more time at work.

And this is what I hear Jesus telling us today, to simply stop and be, to make room for him in our hearts. “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” We can find rest from our stresses, our pressures, our burdens in a relationship with Jesus. When we make room for Jesus, these burdens and labors are eased. They don't necessarily go away, but they are put into perspective. We find a way to balance our lives in a way that is physically and spiritually healthy.

When we make the time for Christ, and surrender to God’s love for us, we can find the strength to go on with our day. And when we are secure in knowing how much God loves us, we can rest from our burdens. We then can reach out to try and ease the burdens of others.

Because life without service is selfish; if my life only is about me and my own personal pleasures, we get lost. We float along from one problem to the next without time for rest or reflection. Jesus invites us today to find this balance: to be busy and work for the Reign of God and yet to rest and relax and reflect on God's love and presence in the midst of our lives.

We are called to regain that wonder of children, to regain the simple joy of living and loving. As Jesus reminds us, God has revealed his will and his plan to the little ones. Perhaps we can all learn from the children and learn to find time to be with those we love, to find time to be with Christ and to be thankful for all of the many blessings God bestows on us each and every day.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time  July 9, 2017
St. Vincent de Paul Parish: Welcoming the Stranger

This year, a number of refugee families will start their lives over again in the Chicago area. Most will have no friends to lean on during their first difficult days and weeks in the United States. St. Vincent de Paul Parish is partnering with Exodus World Services to help one of these new families this summer. This outreach effort coincides with the Vincentian Family’s 400th Anniversary Global Initiative.

St. Vincent Announces Joan Buchannan as the winner of the Rice Bowl Challenge!

Parishioner Joan Buchannan came closest (without going over) in guessing how much change is in the bowl pictured here. Joan wins a free summer polo shirt with the St. Vincent logo. The exact amount raised was $623.67.

More than 13,000 faith communities participated in Catholic Relief Services’ Operation Rice Bowl last Lent, and St. Vincent de Paul was one of those participants. At the parish Fish Fry, and through other individual efforts, we collected a lot of change—in fact, we are donating 62.6 pounds of it!

How is our change changing the world? By supporting Operation Rice Bowl, we are helping with:

- Agriculture projects to help farmers
- Water and sanitation projects
- Microfinance projects to help small businesses
- Mother and child health projects
- Education projects provide resources and training

Also, 25% of our donations go to hunger and poverty alleviation efforts right here in our community.

Catholic Relief Services eases suffering and provides assistance to people in need in more than 100 countries, without regard to race, religion or nationality. Thank you for your generosity.

SHEFFIELD MUSIC FESTIVAL
AND GARDEN WALK

Saturday, July 22nd
Sunday, July 23rd

Sign up to volunteer by logging onto the parish website at stvdep.org, or sign up in the back of church after mass in the coming weeks.

Positions include serving beer, food, working in the kitchen, and more.
Shifts are two or three hours, and there is a job for everyone.

St. Vincent de Paul Special Edition Church Tour

Can you spot the Foundlings, Sun of Splendor or Daughters of Charity? Do you know the story behind the Munich Stained Glass? Were you an extra when a Hollywood movie was filmed on location at St. Vincent de Paul Parish?

Learn about these and more at The St Vincent de Paul Special Edition Church Tour on Garden Walk Sunday July 23, 2017 after the 10:00 am Mass. We will gather at 11:15 am on the front steps of the church facing Webster Avenue to take a deeper look at our beloved patron Saint Vincent de Paul along with the history, church architecture and Vincentian art in our parish.

All are welcome and we look forward to seeing you there!
Who’s In The Pews?
Profiles of neighbors serving our mission to Worship/Serve/Share

Names: Chris Lalla and Becky Janus

How long have you been attending Mass at St. Vincent de Paul?
Chris: My friends introduced me to the church on Ash Wednesday in 2014, and I have been coming ever since!
Becky: I’ve been attending Mass at St. Vincent de Paul for about three years.

Where did you grow up?
Chris: I grew up in Orland Park, IL which is a Southwest suburb near Joliet.
Becky: I’ve lived in Chicago my entire life (with the exception of college).

Where did you go to school?
Chris: I attended the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign for my Bachelor’s and Master’s in Statistics. My parents, brother, and sister all attended the University, so I guess you can say we are an orange and blue family!
Becky: I attended the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign for my undergrad.

What do you do professionally (or what types of volunteer or other activities do you participate in)?
Chris: I am a data scientist at a large, commercial insurance company in the Chicagoland area. I work in predictive analytics to provide tools to claim adjusters and underwriters to make data-driven decisions. In my free time, I enjoy running. I have completed a marathon, half marathon, and various other races throughout Chicago. I also umpire high school baseball which is a nice change of pace to the everyday routine.
Becky: I’m currently working downtown Chicago as an actuarial consultant. Outside of work, I enjoy playing tennis, traveling, and my big project this summer is to create my first outdoor garden (growing variety of vegetables and fruits).

What do you like most about St. Vincent de Paul parish?
Chris: I love the sense of community at St. Vincent and how the parish is part of the DePaul campus. There are a lot of fun events and opportunities that St. Vincent offers, and I have always felt welcomed at any of the events I have attended.
Becky: I’ve met so many wonderful people at St. Vincent de Paul, and have enjoyed the various events and volunteer opportunities offered during the year.

 We would also like to congratulate Chris and Becky on their recent engagement! May God continue to bless your relationship as you prepare for the holy Sacrament of Marriage.
ON DISPARATE VERSES, BUT MAYBE NOT
Copyright 2017 by John B. Reynolds (joh@jrwrites.com)

Is it just me, or are you seeing the disparity between two side-by-each verses in today’s Gospel? First we get, “Come to me all of you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” I could use some rest—especially after two recent work experiences—but next, “Take my yoke upon you and learn from me…” According to dictionary.com a yoke is “a device for joining together a pair of draft animals...” or “a frame fitting the neck and shoulders of a person, for carrying a pair of buckets or the like, one at each end,” or even “an agency of oppression, subjection, servitude, etc.” Uh, no thanks...

Last Sunday I had a great day planned. Mass in the morning, then make paella for dinner, then hit the Blues Festival. I was on track until my cellphone rang at 2:00 PM or so. It was Andrew—a long-time friend and work colleague—calling to say that he’d just heard from one of our suppliers about a probable Class 1 recall (the serious food safety kind) going down. He was calling from our Elk Grove Village office, but he’d only stopped to collect a few things before heading off on a work assignment to Des Moines. Normally Andrew would handle the recall, but since he was IA-bound, I went to the office. It was nearly 8:00 when I got home. No paella. No blues. Other than the obvious...

Monday was fine. Long day, but no crises. Tuesday, however, was Sunday-esque. I got home around 7:00 and was about to make dinner (BLTs with baked beans and corn-on-the-cob) when I got an email from one of our member-owner retailers out east telling me that another probable Class 1 recall was going down. Different item and different supplier, but the same serious food safety concern. This would normally fall to Ron—a another long-time friend and work colleague—but I couldn’t reach him, so I went to work again—this time from my dining room table—and I closed my laptop around 9:45. I’m telling you true, I was not happy.

But I’m telling you true, too, that more than once both Sunday and again on Tuesday, I put my work aside for a few seconds to pray, whispering either “Help me, Jesus,” or “Thank you, Jesus.” And both brought me to the same end: a certain peace in knowing that I wasn’t in it alone. It’s not that some heavenly force swooped down and filled in the spreadsheets for me or made the phone calls or wrote the emails, but I believe some heavenly force was in play nonetheless. To borrow a line from an old Lynn Anderson song that I’ve always liked, “I beg your pardon/ I never promised you a rose garden/ Along with the sunshine/ There’s gotta be a little rain some time...” These lyrics speak to me of “Take my yoke upon you and learn from me...” Why? Because Jesus doesn’t promise us a rose garden, either. The yoke he offers doesn’t take away the trials before us, but it gives us support, I think, to put them behind us in one fashion or another. Help me, Jesus. Thank you, Jesus. Amen.

Thank you for your continued support of St. Vincent de Paul Parish! Your commitment is vital to the fiscal health of our parish. For convenient regular giving, please consider using our auto-withdrawal program.

Welcome

Thank you for being with us! As you explore what St. Vincent has to offer, please reach out to a member of the parish staff to answer any questions. We ask all who regularly join us in worship to take a moment to register. This enables us to serve you better and takes only a couple of minutes. Registration can be done through the Parish Center during business hours, or by visiting us online at www.stvedep.org.

We Welcome the Following New Parishioners: Megan Thole, Chris Eakins, Brian, Alona and Riley Gornick, Josh Paolina, Noel Anson and Caitlin Couture

Private Prayer in the Church
Please enter the church for private prayer through the Parish Center during regular office hours.

Finding Your Way Around

- Restrooms: Public restrooms are located in the narthex and Parish Center.
- Parish Center: Staff offices and meeting rooms are housed in the Parish Center. Reception for the public is located in this building to the west of the church and to the back of the courtyard.
- Ozanam Room: Large meeting and activity room on the first floor at the end of the hall.
- Portail Room: Small conference room on the first floor across from the kitchen.
- St. Vincent Room: Large meeting room on the lower level.
- Narthex: Large gathering space at the main doors on Webster Avenue.
- Sacristy: Room behind the west side of the sanctuary where the priest and other ministers prepare for liturgical celebrations. This room also provides access to the Parish Center.

Parking

Parking behind the church is permitted for parishioners and guests attending weekend masses and Friday wedding rehearsals. Parking at all other times without a proper DePaul University faculty/staff permit is subject to towing at the owner's expense. Public parking is available at the university garage on Sheffield (at Fullerton). Tickets may be validated for two hours at Parish Center reception, or at the Sheffield entrance of the church while attending church-related functions.

Disabled Access

A ramped sidewalk can be accessed from the rear parking lot to the Sheffield entrance of the church. There is a ramped access to the sacristy from the church which allows access to the Parish Center through the sacristy. All of our restrooms are disabled-accessible.

Mother Seton Food Pantry and Sandwich Kitchen

Located in the northeast corner of the church (access is through the wheelchair door on Sheffield), the sandwich kitchen is open Monday-Saturday from 8:15-10 a.m. The food pantry is open on Tuesdays from 10:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering in the morning, or to help prepare meals or shop, please contact Katie Leifer at ktleifer@gmail.com.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Vincent de Paul Parish

July 9, 2017
Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
