Who do you say that I am? This question that Jesus asks the disciples today is the same question that he asks each of us. What is our response? Below is a reflection from Pope Francis on this passage. Who is Jesus to us? How do we connect with his Church?

“This Sunday’s Gospel reading is a well-known passage, central to Matthew’s account, in which Simon, on behalf of the Twelve, professes his faith in Jesus as ‘the Christ, the Son of the living God’; and Jesus calls Simon ‘blessed’ for this faith, recognizing in him a special gift of the Father, and tells him: ‘You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church.’

“Let us pause on this very point, on the fact that Jesus gives Simon this name, ‘Peter,’ which in Jesus’ language is pronounced ‘Kefa,’ a word which means ‘rock.’ In the Bible this term, rock, refers to God. Jesus gives it to Simon not because of his character or for his merits as a human, but for his genuine and steadfast faith, which comes to him from above.

“Jesus feels great joy in his heart because, in Simon, he recognizes the hand of the Father, the work of the Holy Spirit. He recognizes that God the Father has given Simon ‘steadfast’ faith on which He, Jesus, can build his Church, meaning his community, that is, all of us. Jesus intends to give life to ‘his’ Church, a people founded no longer on heritage, but on faith, which means on the relationship with Him, a relationship of love and trust. The Church is built on our relationship with Jesus. And to begin his Church, Jesus needs to find solid faith, steadfast faith in his disciples. And it is this that He must verify at this point of the journey.

“The Lord has in mind a picture of the structure, an image of the community like a building. This is why, when he hears Simon’s candid profession of faith, he calls him a ‘rock,’ and declares his intention to build his Church upon this faith.

“Brothers and sisters, what happened in a unique way in St. Peter, also happens in every Christian who develops a sincere faith in Jesus the Christ, the Son of the Living God. Today’s Gospel passage also asks each of us, is my faith good? How does the Lord find our hearts? A heart that is firm as a rock, or a heart like sand, that is doubtful, diffident, disbelieving? It will do us good to think about this throughout the day today. If the Lord finds in our heart, I don’t say a perfect, but sincere, genuine faith, then He also sees in us living stones with which to build his community. This community’s foundation stone is Christ, the unique cornerstone. On his side, Peter is the rock, the visible foundation of the Church’s unity; but every baptized person is called to offer Jesus his or her lowly but sincere faith, so that He may continue to build his Church, today, in every part of the world.

“Even today, so many people think Jesus may be a great prophet, knowledgeable teacher, a model of justice.... And even today Jesus asks his disciples, that is, all of us: ‘Who do you say that I am?’ What do we answer? Let us think about this. But above all, let us pray that God grant us the grace to respond, with a sincere heart: ‘You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.’

The family catechetical model of religious education is used at St. Vincent de Paul Parish. The Church believes that parents are the primary teachers of their children, and the parish is there to assist and help them. In this format, parents and children meet together for class from 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM once per month. Families utilize take-home materials to continue the lessons at home. Weekly mass attendance is also considered part of the class.

The religious education fee is $150 per child. Due to space limitations classes will be capped at 10 students. Two years of religious education classes are required for a child to receive his/her First Communion. For more information or to register email Rebecca at rcarmict@depaul.edu
Registrations must be received by September 1st.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

For nearly 100 years, construction has continued on the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC. This “hymn in stone” has served as a beacon of our faith to the nearly 1 million who visit it each year and to the millions more who visit and work in our nation’s capital. Perhaps you have visited the Shrine yourself. Mary’s Shrine, as it is often called, is the largest Roman Catholic Church in North America and is one of the ten largest churches in the world. Yet, 97 years after the laying of its foundation stone in 1920, it remains unfinished.

This year, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has asked our help funding the completion of the Trinity Dome, the last remaining Shrine construction project. This “Crowning Jewel” will be adorned in mosaic and will depict the Most Holy Trinity, the Blessed Virgin Mary as the Immaculate Conception, and a procession of saints who have an association with America and the Basilica. More information on this project can be found at trinitydome.org and/or nationalshrine.org.

We have agreed to do our part in making this project a success by taking up a second collection next weekend. Our goal is to raise $600,000 to honor the Blessed Mother by completing her Shrine and signifying to all who see it that our country and its people are grateful for her many graces. Thank you in advance for your active support of this initiative.

You and your families continue to be in my prayers, and I ask that you not forget to pray for me. With every good wish I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago
KING SOLOMON’S SINGERS

This year’s performance, titled “Makin’ It!” explores what a Renaissance composer’s gotta do to get by in a rough business. There are patrons to butter up, monarchs to convince you should keep your head, and potential employers to wow. Among the practically motivated masterpieces presented are virtuosic 8-part compositions by Schütz and Monteverdi, one of Byrd’s great gems, and a door-blower-offer by Heinrich Isaac.

Our friend Lulu has a wonderful family tradition. In late summer, they all gather together on the lakefront on a Sunday morning to watch the sunrise. My wife and I have been honored in the past to join them, and it’s always a great experience filled with good food, good coffee, good company. In fact, Lulu invited us to join her and her family again just this past weekend, Sunday 8/20, but sadly, we had to decline. I told Lulu we couldn’t take in the sunrise with her and her family because Gail and I would be in St. Louis with my family that weekend to take in the solar eclipse on Monday, 8/21. The irony is delicious: she’s chasing the sun; we’re chasing the shadow.

I told a friend a couple of months ago about this upcoming adventure. While she was excited for me, Daisy said something in response that struck me for its inherent simplicity and truth. “Why do you have to drive to St. Louis to see the eclipse? It’s in the sky…” Hard to argue. So that’s when we discussed the Path of Totality sweeping the entire country for the first time in nearly 100 years, and the locations within the path affording views of the total eclipse because such locations are positioned to see the moon completely block the sun. Besides, I told her that I just love the name itself: the Path of Totality. She said, “Sounds like your next song.” It’s already in the can.

We invited ourselves into my nephew’s home months ago. He lives at the northern edge of the Path in suburban St. Louis, and we figured his place would be a good base for a drive a little further south on eclipse day. But this was months ago, like I said. As 8/21 grew closer, eclipse frenzy continued to grow. Carbondale is at the center of the path and is expecting a crowd (were the eclipse a football game, Carbondale has a seat on the 50-yard line). Huge traffic jams are anticipated on highways headed that way. Hotels are booked. Eclipse glasses are sold out. Workplace productivity experts are predicting essentially a corporate shutdown in the early afternoon. Everyone wants a piece of the sun.

Or Son? Deadlines being deadlines, I’m writing this column a day before the eclipse, and the sun/Son parallels scream at me. To Daisy’s point, the sun is always in the sky; the Son tells us he is with us always. The sun warms us; the Son does the same. On eclipse day, the sun’s light is dimmed; on our worst days, we walk in darkness. In an early Star Trek episode, Kirk & Co. encounter a planet modeled after early Roman earth culture, but certain people, who describe themselves as sun worshippers, are peaceable. Spock doesn’t get it, saying that sun worship typically doesn’t lend itself to such sensibility, until Uhura puts him straight. “It’s not the sun up in the sky,” she says. “It’s the Son of God.” Per Peter in today’s Gospel, Jesus is the Christ, “the Son of the living God.” OK. So…Son or shadow? The choice is always before us. May we ever seek an opposite Path of Totality. May we ever seek the brilliance of the Son.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
