We can often feel like Job in today’s first reading. We feel that life is “drudgery,” that our nights are “filled with restlessness” and “without hope.” We may even feel that “I shall not see happiness again.” These are very strong words from Scripture, ones that we may not expect to see in the Word of God.

The story of Job is one with which many of us are familiar. He undergoes terrible pain and suffering in his life, yet stands firm in his insistence that he has done nothing wrong to offend God. As omniscient readers, we also know this to be true. In the end, God recognizes his faithfulness.

The Book of Job grapples with the problem of evil, that is, “Why do bad things happen to innocent people?” Yet the book does not answer the question. When God answers Job, God does not tell him why bad things happen. However, it is clear from the reading of the text that God disavows the prevalent belief (which is still present today) that illness, disasters and other evils are punishment for sin.

The question of “Why?” that we so often ask does not have an easy answer. As people of faith, we are no more immune to suffering and pain than others. But we are called to trust that we are not alone, to continue reaching out in prayer as Job did: honest prayer from the depths of our heart. Christ is with us in the midst of our pain. Often, it is a strength simply to know that Christ is there. Yet that is simply one piece. As the Body of Christ in the world, each one of us is called to be present as Jesus was, to support one another as Jesus did and to fight against evil as Jesus did. We are called to be compassionate, to “suffer with” those who hurt. Sometimes, we simply need to be present.

On a trip to the Philippines, Pope Francis was asked this very question by two children who had recently been living on the streets of Manila. I was personally moved by his response, which was also a challenge to each of us: “Why do children suffer? Only when our hearts can ask this question and weep, can we begin to understand. There is a worldly compassion which is completely useless. You said something about this. A compassion which, at most, makes us reach into our pocket and take out a coin. If Christ had that kind of compassion, he would have passed by, cured three or four people, and then returned to the Father. Only when Christ wept, and he was capable of weeping, did he understand our troubles. Dear young men and women, our world today needs weeping.”

2018 Annual Catholic Appeal
“Come, Follow Me”

2018 Annual Catholic Appeal “Come, Follow Me” This weekend, our parish will be conducting the Annual Catholic Appeal in-pew Commitment Weekend. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

The ACA theme, “Come, Follow Me” was selected to remind us to continue to answer Jesus’ call to follow Him in thought, word and deed by providing the necessary contribution to fund ministries and services to share God’s love with many others in our Parish and our Archdiocese.

Each pledge makes a difference because all Parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

SETON SOUP KITCHEN
Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This February we are asking for donations of travel size toiletries (shampoo, toothpaste etc.)

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.
Lenten Regulations

Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted. The special Paschal fast, as well as abstinence, are prescribed for Good Friday and encouraged for Holy Saturday.

Keynote Speaker: Gianna Jessen

Gianna Jessen was intended to die before she was born, just another one of the nearly 1 million abortions each year in the United States. Instead of dying, after 18 hours of a burning saline solution bath in her mother’s womb, Gianna was delivered alive in an abortion clinic. Gianna had much to overcome to enter the world. The failed abortion also provided the “gift” of cerebral palsy, as she calls it: “It allows me to really depend on Jesus for everything.” The popular 2012 pro-life movie “October Baby” is loosely based on her life. Gianna is a dedicated pro-life activist/speaker and accomplished recording artist (hear her single “Ocean Floor” from the movie soundtrack). Her joyful witness will surely touch your heart and enrich your life.

ON BETTING AGAINST JOB, AND DUM SPIRO SPERO
Copyright 2017 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

In Godspell, one of my favorite musicals ever, one of my favorite songs ever is titled “All For The Best.” Here, the Jesus character opens the lyrics with this: “When you feel sad, or under a curse/Your life is bad, your prospects are worse/Your wife is sighing, crying.../And your olive tree is dying,/Temples are graying, and teeth are decaying/And creditors weighing your purse.../Your mood and your robe/Are both a deep blue/You'd bet that Job/Had nothin' on you.../Don't forget that when you get to/Heaven you'll be blessed/Yes, it's all for the best...” The song and the lyrics come to mind now as I consider today's Scriptures, especially the first reading from Job...

"Is not man's life on earth a drudgery?" Job says. “...I am filled with restlessness until the dawn. My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle; they come to an end without hope...I shall not see happiness again.” Yikes! After someone read aloud in a grad school poetry class years ago a poem by the late English writer Philip Larkin about the negativism of the parent-child relationship that concluded with “Man hands on misery to man/It deepens like a coastal shelf/Get out as early as you can/And don’t have any kids yourself,” one of my classmates said to herself but for all to hear: “Wow. What a charmer.” Wow, indeed. Job and Philip Larkin: two (hopeless) peas in a pod.

But hope is everything. I read once decades ago—on a chalkboard in an empty classroom at St. Rita High School, actually—that one of the rules for a happy life is to each and every day give oneself something to look forward to. Isn't this the essence of hope? Something to look forward to? “Hope, the best comfort of our imperfect condition,” someone famous once said. But Alexander Pope saw it this way: “Hope springs eternal in the human breast; Man never is, but always to be blest.” And Benjamin Franklin saw it this way: “He that lives upon hope will die fasting.” And Milton saw it this way: “Our final hope is flat despair.” Yikes! All over again. Yikes! Yikes! Yikes! in fact.

I like the Scriptural observation that faith is the substance of things hoped for much more. Today’s Gospel is all about hope. When Jesus enters the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John, Simon's mother-in-law is sick with a fever. The disciples tell Jesus this, and he cures her by grasping her hand and helping her up. Then Jesus’ healing touch continues through the night (“When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door”), and continues again the next day when he goes on to other nearby villages, because, as his disciples tell him, “Everyone is looking for you,” and as Jesus understands, “...for this purpose, have I come.” So when any of us feel sad or under a curse, and our olive tree is dying, and our mood matches our robe, and we'd bet that Job had nothing on us, may we all embrace the Latin phrase that my daughter tipped me off to years ago. Dum spiro spero. "While I breathe, I hope." And breathe. And hope...in the Christ.

Pro-Life Awareness Baby Bottle Project

St. Vincent de Paul will participate in the Pro-Life Awareness Baby Bottle Project benefiting The Women’s Center of Greater Chicagoland. This non-profit organization directly assists families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material and spiritual support through counseling, clothing and monetary provisions, prayer and other aid. Each year the three Chicagoland locations of The Women’s Center handle 5,000 appointments with expectant mothers.

Please take a Baby Bottle home with you, fill it with your spare change, and return it the week of February 11.

Each year, 1.3 million children are aborted in the United States. To put it into perspective, that is the equivalent of the student bodies of DePaul and Loyola being killed – every two weeks. Please continue to pray for a greater respect for life, especially among the most vulnerable. In addition, if you or someone you know has experienced abortion, there are resources to help the healing process. You can experience God’s love and mercy through contacting Project Rachel at 312-337-1962 or 888-456-HOPE. This free and confidential program can help with emotional, psychological and spiritual concerns.

Thank you for supporting The Women’s Center of Greater Chicagoland again this year!

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday Mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.
