Miraculous Medal Novena
Monday mornings after the 8:00 a.m. Mass
The Letter of St. Paul to the Philippians has one of my favorite passages from the New Testament: “Though he was in the form of God, Jesus did not equate equality with God something to be grasped; rather he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him.” (2:6-9) This passage is important to me because it demonstrates the extent to which Jesus followed God’s plan, without regard for himself. Being the Son of God, Jesus could have taken the easy route when it came to his coming to earth. Instead, he did not cling to the honor due him and made himself low out of love for us. It is because of his great love for us that he gave himself completely.

We see a foreshadowing of the extent of this love and emptying of self in today’s Gospel. The leper, as we heard in the first reading, was required by law to remain apart, separated from the community and family. He could not touch another, nor could anyone touch him. When he comes to Jesus, he asks for healing. Jesus breaks the taboo by touching him to cure him, and “he was made clean.”

After the healing, Jesus tells him to keep it a secret, but the man goes about praising Jesus and telling his story. Because of this, “it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places.” (Mark 1:45) Prior to this healing, Jesus was the center of attention in the towns he visited, while the leper was banished to the margins. Afterwards, the cleansed leper is now in the center, on the inside, while Jesus is isolated, “outside in deserted places.”

As this Gospel passage notes, Christ took upon himself all of our hurts, our pains, our “unclean-ness.” He humbled himself to be the marginalized one, on the outside looking in. He did this because he wanted to make us whole, to allow us to truly recognize God’s love and mercy. Perhaps our prayer can be to recognize where we need Christ’s healing touch to be made whole, and give thanks to God for this great gift that we receive.

Lent begins this Wednesday. Masses here are at 8am, 12pm, 7pm and 9:30pm. In addition, reflection books are available for you to take home. In addition, daily reflections written by the Worship Commission will be on our parish website and Facebook page. I strongly encourage you to take advantage of these opportunities to pray and reflect more during this Lenten season.
2018 Annual Catholic Appeal
“Come, Follow Me”

2018 Annual Catholic Appeal “Come, Follow Me” This weekend, our parish will be conducting the Annual Catholic Appeal in-pew Commitment Weekend. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

The ACA theme, “Come, Follow Me” was selected to remind us to continue to answer Jesus’ call to follow Him in thought, word and deed by providing the necessary contribution to fund ministries and services to share God’s love with many others in our Parish and our Archdiocese.

Each pledge makes a difference because all Parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

SETON SOUP KITCHEN
Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This February we are asking for donations of travel size toiletries (shampoo, toothpaste etc.)

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

Pro-Life Awareness Baby Bottle Project

St. Vincent de Paul will participate in the Pro-Life Awareness Baby Bottle Project benefiting The Women's Center of Greater Chicagoland. This non-profit organization directly assists families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material and spiritual support through counseling, clothing and monetary provisions, prayer and other aid. Each year the three Chicagoland locations of The Women's Center handle 5,000 appointments with expectant mothers.

Please take a Baby Bottle home with you, fill it with your spare change, and return it the week of February 11.

Each year, 1.3 million children are aborted in the United States. To put it into perspective, that is the equivalent of the student bodies of DePaul and Loyola being killed – every two weeks. Please continue to pray for a greater respect for life, especially among the most vulnerable. In addition, if you or someone you know has experienced abortion, there are resources to help the healing process. You can experience God’s love and mercy through contacting Project Rachel at 312-337-1962 or 888-456-HOPE. This free and confidential program can help with emotional, psychological and spiritual concerns.

Thank you for supporting The Women's Center of Greater Chicagoland again this year!

Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery: Putting Forth a Victim-Centered Approach

11:30am Lunch Presentation*

*RSVP required by Feb. 19 to cwct@depaul.edu (Lunch provided; limited seating)

Human trafficking, modern slavery—we don’t see it happening, but we see its effects all around us—from the clothes we wear, to the food we eat, and the services we use. Each year, 17,000 vulnerable victims are trafficked across U.S. borders and exploited through forced sex or labor. Find out how the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB)’s Migration & Refugee Services is leading efforts here in the U.S. to combat trafficking and restore dignity to its victims through advocacy, awareness raising, training & technical assistance, and integration services.

2017-18 Corporal Works of Mercy Series
Found in the teachings of Jesus, the corporal works of mercy respond to the basic physical (corporal) needs of our human family. They give us a model for how we should treat all others—as if they were Christ in disguise.

Ashley Feasley is the director of policy for the USCCB’s Migration and Refugee Services. She has testified before Congress, published numerous articles, appeared in the media to speak on migration-related issues, and taught at the law schools of Fordham University and the Catholic University of America.

I heard something amazing on an early morning radio show recently. I didn't catch the entire piece, and I haven't thought much about it until now, as I consider today's readings. Anyway, the radio host was wrapping up a story about loneliness, and I think I heard him say that being chronically alone is as detrimental to one's health as smoking fifteen cigarettes a day. Not sure about the number, but even the concept is astounding, and something I'd never before considered. A Google search (“people dying of loneliness”) gets all sorts of hits, like this one from the NY Post: “Turns out American men aren't just dying lonely deaths—they're dying from loneliness itself.” That's not good.

And it's not just men, for a non-gender specific entry from a medical website has this to say on the subject: “In the last decade alone, physicians and researchers have begun looking deeply into the impact of loneliness and social isolation on health, well-being, and mortality, and the data on the subject is overwhelming: a lonely person is significantly more likely to suffer an early death than a non-lonely one.” And this, from the Huffington Post: “While it's difficult to explain the relationship between loneliness and death, it's important to empirically document this association...” Wow. Something's going on, and it puts a whole new perspective on Garbo's “I want to be alone,” you know?

Certain lyrics/poems have long spoken to me because they offer insight into the human condition. One such lyric was written by Kris Kristofferson and immortalized by Janice Joplin in Me and Bobby McGee: “Freedom is just another word for nothin' left to lose.” Another was written by Steve Goodman in Song for David: “Weary, but weary is only a case/ Of being unwound at the wrong time and place.” And the first of two entries specific to loneliness was penned by the poet Kenneth Patchen in Lonesome Boy Blues: “Oh lonesome's a bad place/ To get crowded into,” and the other, by Billy Joel in Piano Man: “They're sharing a drink they call loneliness/ But it's better than drinkin' alone.”

In Leviticus today we hear of the leper’s plight as God speaks to Moses and Aaron: “The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare...he shall cry out, ‘Unclean, unclean!’ As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean...He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp.” In the Gospel, Jesus, moved with pity by a leper's request, cures the man, telling him to show himself to the priests but to tell no one along the way. The man, of course, tells everyone along the way, making it tough for Jesus to enter towns openly. Instead, he remains “…outside in deserted places.” The lepers’ loneliness is externally-driven. Jesus’ loneliness is essentially internally driven, but he never turns the marginalized away. Or any of us, when we turn to him. So... speaking of loneliness in the context of song lyrics, John and Paul: “All the lonely people/ Where do they all come from?” (from any number of places and/or reasons). And, “All the lonely people/ Where do they all belong?” (in the comforting embrace of the Christ).

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.
