Frequently over the past several years, we have spoken about the need for mercy in our lives. Taking our cue from Pope Francis, we have spoken about how generous and merciful God is to us. In fact, mercy is the defining attribute of who God is. God shows power through mercy. God shows justice through mercy. God shows wisdom through mercy.

The message of the mercy of God is the key to understanding Jesus. As Pope Francis said, Jesus is the face of God’s mercy. Through his actions, his teachings and his words, Jesus shows us how truly loving and merciful God is.

This is the Good News that we are invited to share! Two years ago, we celebrated the Jubilee Year of Mercy, and I went to World Youth Day in Poland, whose theme was “Blessed are the merciful.” But mercy is not contained in one year. Because the year of mercy is over does not mean that we stop being merciful and compassionate! Mercy matters in our broken world, and our world can be transformed through this message of mercy.

Today as we continue our Easter celebration, we also celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. Instituted by Pope John Paul II, in this mass we celebrate in a special way what we really celebrate every weekend: the great and infinite mercy of God. It can be difficult for us to believe this. How can God really love me when I have done X, Y or Z? How can God really love me because I am A, B or C? The message we hear today is that God loves YOU personally, infinitely and unconditionally. It is we who set conditions on God's love and mercy, not God. We are invited to accept that into our hearts, just as Thomas accepted Jesus into his heart when he appeared to him after the Resurrection. And when we receive that loving mercy of God for ourselves, what else can we do but share it with those around us? Let us give thanks to God for this great gift that can free us from shame and doubt and allow us to live in the light and glory of the Risen Lord.
Pray : Serve : Share

Have you ever wanted to get more out of your faith journey? Then consider learning more about SPRED. We are a small faith community who help children with developmental disabilities to grow in their spirituality. Our group of 6-10 year olds make us smile, laugh and get more out of our relationship with God and each other and they could do the same for you!

To learn more about this ministry and how it may benefit you or if you know of families with special needs members (of all ages), please email Tracy at stvdepspred@yahoo.com or leave a note in the Parish Center in our SPRED mailbox.

WAIT, I’M A DISCIPLE?
The Power We All Have to Spread God’s Light

Thursday, April 19
6:30 – 9 p.m.
HQ Beercade
213 West Institute Place
Chicago, IL 60610

Who were the original Disciples? Just ordinary people with a message that changed history. We have a similar kind of power, too, although it's easy to forget it. Like them, we are messengers to the people around us revealing the truth of our values, beliefs and faith in the things we do and say.

Join young adults from across the Archdiocese of Chicago and Lisa Fortini-Campbell, Adjunct Professor at Kellogg School of Management, hospice volunteer, and convert to the Catholic Faith at HQ Beercade on Thursday, April 19, as we journey together to discover how each of us can light up the world by living in a way that is brave and bold, and yet never fails to be loving and respectful.

Vincent’s People: A Stewardship Chronicle

The lives of St. Vincent parishioners are undoubtedly our greatest treasure. We continually seek to increase awareness and faithfulness to our mission to worship, serve, and share. In doing so, we understand the significance in telling the stories of how ordinary people are doing extraordinary things to live a life of discipleship, both within our parish and in the world. This month, we introduce Greg, Meaghan, Nora and Henry Stallkamp...

Greg and I met 8 years ago at Trinity Bar on Halsted while celebrating St. Patrick’s Day and watching College Basketball. Greg has been attending St. Vincent DePaul since he moved to Chicago about 15 years ago and I started attending with Greg in 2013. For a few years, prior to attending St. Vincent DePaul, I was not a regular church goer. I was having trouble seeing eye to eye with the Catholic Church. I was hearing one message but was not seeing the same message put into action. I attended Catholic Schools for 18 years and was comfortable with my beliefs. I thought I was ok on my own being a “good Catholic”, volunteering at various organizations and praying independently.

Vincent’s People: A Stewardship Chronicle

(part 2)

What drew me to St. Vincent DePaul’s Parish and kept me wanting to come back was their sense of community and their outreach to the underserved members of our community. This was the first time I was seeing a Parish practice what they preach. I signed up to volunteer on Saturdays in the Seton Sandwich Kitchen within a week of attending my first Mass at St. Vincent DePaul and reading about the volunteer opportunity in the bulletin. Since then, Greg and I have participated in a variety of activities from picking up baked goods for the Sandwich Kitchen to helping with the Christmas toy drive. I currently serve on the Outreach Commission and the Parish Council. I love being a part of a community that has a strong commitment to living the Vincentian Mission and not just talking about it. To me, St. Vincent DePaul Parish exemplifies what it means to follow in Jesus’ footsteps and serve those in need.

Greg and I were married by Fr. Jeremy at St. Vincent DePaul on November 29, 2014. Since then, we have welcomed two children, Nora, 2, and Henry, 9 months, into our family, both of whom were Baptized here. It is important for us to raise our children in the Catholic faith and to teach them by example. We want Nora and Henry to understand that there are people around them who are not as fortunate as us and struggle everyday with poverty and hunger. We hope to teach them that they can have a positive impact on someone or something and that they can be instruments of change. It is important for us to expose our children to the diverse city we live in and give them opportunities and experiences in which they can serve others and develop the necessary skills to make positive choices in their lives. Thanks to our Vincentian community, we are surrounded by a culture of service and people who exemplify the importance of giving back and helping our neighbors. We hope that Nora and Henry will follow in St. Vincent DePaul’s footsteps, show empathy and treat others with kindness and respect. In the meantime, we are in the pews singing Old MacDonald and the ABCs with Mr. Bob and the choir.

ON DOUBTING, THOMAS, EVIDENCE, AND FAITH

Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

Thomas, Thomas, Thomas. What are we going to do about Thomas? Again we read in today’s Gospel from John the story of Didymus—Thomas—dubbed “Doubting” for the ages because of his initial non-belief in the risen Lord. We all know the story. Christ’s disciples are gathered in a locked room on the evening of the first day of the week when Jesus appears in their midst. Unfortunately, as John writes, “Thomas…was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, ‘We have seen the Lord.’ But he said to them, ‘Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.’” Oh, Thomas...

Remember, though, it was Thomas who didn’t balk when Jesus told the disciples that he was returning to Judea for Lazarus’ sake. “Rabbi,” his friends said, “the Jews were just trying to stone you, and you want to go back there?” Only Thomas speaks up, saying, “Let us also go to die with him.” And it was Thomas at the Last Supper sincerely seeking direction after Jesus told his friends that he was going to prepare places for them, and that where he was going, they knew the way. Thomas again speaks up: “We do not know where you are going, how can we know the way?” So where was Thomas on the night of that first day of the week? Quietly mourning in his own way is my guess.

Wherever he was, we must recall that Thomas wasn’t alone in his disbelief. In Mark’s account, after Mary Magdalene witnesses the risen Lord, she runs to tell the disciples, but even then, “they did not believe.” And in John’s account, after Mary tells Peter and the disciple Jesus loved that the stone is rolled away, they race to place to see for themselves. Yes, Thomas sees and believes when Jesus appears a second time, prompting Christ to say, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." But I see nothing wrong with proof-seeking. Recall what the Apostle Paul tells us, after all: “Test everything; retain what is good.”

Enter Lee Strobel and The Case for Christ: A Journalist’s Personal Investigation of the Evidence for Jesus. Strobel is a non-believer (“For much of my life, I was a skeptic. In fact, I considered myself an atheist”) who decides to apply his investigative journalist skills to prove/disprove Jesus. Pretty heady assignment. He interviews Scripture scholars along the way. He looks for corroborating accounts of Jesus in historical writings beyond the Book. He tackles the empty tomb. And in the end, he comes down on the same Jesus-is-God side of the fence that C.S. Lewis—another skeptic—did. Ultimately, the evidence won them both over. Strobel concludes by quoting Lewis, in fact: “You must make your own choice. Either this man was, and is the Son of God; or else a madman or something worse. You can shut Him up for a fool, you can spit at Him and kill Him as s demon; or you can fall at His feet and call him Lord and God...” Like Thomas, I suppose. And all of us the same.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
