Miraculous Medal Novena
Monday mornings after the 8:00 a.m. Mass
On Monday, Pope Francis released a short apostolic exhortation entitled “Gaudete et Exsultate” (which translates “Rejoice and be glad”). This simple message focuses on what we can do in our modern society to become more holy. While the entire document is worth reading, below are some excerpts about being witnesses to Christ in our lives. Like Peter and the first disciples, we bear witness to the Risen Christ by our words and actions.

I would like to insist primarily on the call to holiness that the Lord addresses to each of us, the call that he also addresses, personally, to you: “Be holy, for I am holy” (Lev 11:44; cf. 1 Pet 1:16). The Second Vatican Council stated this clearly: “Strengthened by so many and such great means of salvation, all the faithful, whatever their condition or state, are called by the Lord – each in his or her own way – to that perfect holiness by which the Father himself is perfect.”

“Each in his or her own way” the Council says. We should not grow discouraged before examples of holiness that appear unattainable. There are some testimonies that may prove helpful and inspiring, but that we are not meant to copy, for that could even lead us astray from the one specific path that the Lord has in mind for us. The important thing is that each believer discern his or her own path, that they bring out the very best of themselves, the most personal gifts that God has placed in their hearts, rather than hopelessly trying to imitate something not meant for them. We are all called to be witnesses, but there are many actual ways of bearing witness.

This is a powerful summons to all of us. You too need to see the entirety of your life as a mission. Try to do so by listening to God in prayer and recognizing the signs that he gives you. Always ask the Spirit what Jesus expects from you at every moment of your life and in every decision you must make, so as to discern its place in the mission you have received. Allow the Spirit to forge in you the personal mystery that can reflect Jesus Christ in today’s world.

May you come to realize what that word is, the message of Jesus that God wants to speak to the world by your life. Let yourself be transformed. Let yourself be renewed by the Spirit, so that this can happen, lest you fail in your precious mission. The Lord will bring it to fulfillment despite your mistakes and missteps, provided that you do not abandon the path of love but remain ever open to his supernatural grace, which purifies and enlightens.

Do not be afraid to set your sights higher, to allow yourself to be loved and liberated by God. Do not be afraid to let yourself be guided by the Holy Spirit. Holiness does not make you less human, since it is an encounter between your weakness and the power of God’s grace. For in the words of León Bloy, when all is said and done, “the only great tragedy in life, is not to become a saint.”
Congratulations and many blessings to those who were a part of RCIA and were received into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil this year:

Welcome the Stranger

This April, St. Vincent's will partner with Exodus World Service to provide household items for a refugee family here in Chicago. You can contribute by purchasing goods from our Amazon registry. Simply go on www.amazon.com, click "Find a List or Registry," and enter stvdep.amazon@gmail.com in the search box to access the list. Please complete any shopping by April 30, and select the option to ship your purchase directly to the parish. Donated items will be shared with a family during the month of May.

We have been grateful for parishioners' generosity in the past, and we look forward to this opportunity to welcome the stranger as a parish community.
WAIT, I’M A DISCIPLE?
The Power We All Have to Spread God’s Light

Thursday, April 19
6:30 – 9 p.m.
HQ Beercade
213 West Institute Place
Chicago, IL 60610

Who were the original Disciples? Just ordinary people with a message that changed history. We have a similar kind of power, too, although it's easy to forget it. Like them, we are messengers to the people around us revealing the truth of our values, beliefs and faith in the things we do and say.

Join young adults from across the Archdiocese of Chicago and Lisa Fortini-Campbell, Adjunct Professor at Kellogg School of Management, hospice volunteer, and convert to the Catholic Faith at HQ Beercade on Thursday, April 19, as we journey together to discover how each of us can light up the world by living in a way that is brave and bold, and yet never fails to be loving and respectful.

Dear Father Jeremy:

St. Vincent De Paul collected a total of $1,858.66 for The Women’s Center in the 2018 Baby Bottle Project!

We are grateful for the generosity of your parish and the wonderful donation we received from you and the parishioners. It is wonderful that you believe in our Life Saving Mission and that your parish is so charitable. We appreciate your help with this endeavor. Since the Baby Bottle project is an essential part of our organization’s fundraising, it is an incredible blessing to us and the women and babies we serve that we can count on your support.

These funds allow us to provide material and financial assistance to women in crisis pregnancies. By choosing life for their babies they can be assured that they will be provided with the many necessities they require. We have over 3500 appointments with women every year and give away over $500,000 in material goods!

We want to express to you, Joan Buchanan, the office staff, the parishioners and everyone involved at your parish our sincere appreciation. We have provided a few posters for display at your church to extend our gratitude and recognition of your great accomplishment.

We are indeed thankful for all that your parish and you do on behalf of defending LIFE!

May God bless you always and congratulations and thanks again!

Midwest Mariapolis

If you or your family are looking for a different kind of experience this summer, something which is not simply a holiday or a retreat, then the Mariapolis (City of Mary) might be just for you.

What is a Mariapolis? It is an event organized by the Focolare Movement and is characteristic of its spirit: it is a gathering of people of all ages and backgrounds, spending a few days together putting into practice the Gospel message of love. The main guideline for these gatherings, which take place in many countries throughout the world, is the ‘Golden Rule’, which invites us to do to others what we would like to be done to us. It is an opportunity to experience what happens in a day-to-day life when we have listening, gift of self and sharing as the basis for our relationships.

The Midwest Mariapolis is taking place from June 29 to July 3 in Green Lake, Wisconsin. Registration is now open, visit http://www.midwestmariapolis.org Registration deadline is April 30. For more information, email midwest@focolare.us or call 773-536-7873 or 708-484-9771.
Please Support the DePaul students on their Faith Journey

Fr. Chris Robinson, CM is leading ten DePaul University students and three Mission and Ministry staff members on a 200 km walking pilgrimage along the Camino de Santiago in Galicia, Spain this summer. This pilgrimage is a great opportunity for students to deepen their faith, journey with others from all over the world, and pause their busy lives for spiritual reflection. Please help them make their way to the Camino! Students and staff from the pilgrimage will be at the back of the church after all the Masses on Saturday, April 28 and Sunday, April 29 with information about their trip. Please visit https://inspire.depaul.edu/project/9653 to learn more about how you can help. You may also email Fr. Chris at crobinso@depaul.edu.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There are many ways in which religious communities are organized. Some have a central authority in a congregation, and others have a "rule" that is shared by all the members, but are a kind of federation of independent houses. Sometimes, congregations with distinct histories and ministries decide to merge. Several years ago, one of the largest mergers on record took place. Seven independent congregations of Dominican women religious, most in the Midwest, are now one new congregation enfolding more than seven hundred members spanning thirty-six states. The oldest of the founding groups, the so-called "Kentucky Dominicans," began as a frontier community in 1822. Other communities have European roots. To get to this historic moment, the sisters spent many years in conversation, and approved the new structure by a two-thirds majority vote. This was then ratified by the Holy See. The merger allows the sisters to pool their resources in order to be more effective in ministry. They are living the Paschal Mystery, experiencing Christ's dying and rising in an inspiring way.

ON DEATH AND TAXES
Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

Most people probably know the time-honored maxim—that only two things in life are certain: death, and taxes—but perhaps most people don’t know its origin. I didn’t, anyway, until I looked it up just now. I’m way too lazy to do any scholarly research, of course, but it’s easy enough to tell you Wikipedia’s take on the matter... “‘Death and taxes is a common reference to the famous quotation: ‘Our new Constitution is now established, and has an appearance that promises permanency; but in this world nothing can be said to be certain, except death and taxes’ (Benjamin Franklin, in a letter to Jean-Baptiste Leroy, 1789). However, Franklin's letter is not the origin of the phrase, which appeared earlier in Daniel Defoe's The Political History of the Devil: ‘Things as certain as death and taxes, can be more firmly believ’d.’ (The Political History of the Devil, 1726), and in The Cobbler of Preston by Christopher Bullock (1716): ‘Tis impossible to be sure of any thing but Death and Taxes.’”

So there you go. If you haven't been paying attention, Tax Day is today, April 15th. But there is a little twist again this year, given the vagaries of the calendar. With the 15th falling on a Sunday, Tax Day would typically move forward one day to tomorrow, Monday, April 16th. But Tax Day 2018 is actually Tuesday, April 17th. Why, specifically? Because, as CNN.com explains, “...Monday, April 16th is Emancipation Day, a legal holiday in the District of Columbia. It marks the day that President Abraham Lincoln signed the Compensated Emancipation Act in 1862, which freed over 3,000 slaves in DC...” So the one-day reprieve becomes a two-day reprieve. But regardless of a 4/15, 4/16, or 4/17 deadline, the IRS still estimates that up to 25% of the US population doesn’t get around to filing their taxes until two weeks before the deadline. That’s a lot of us, and unfortunately this year, I’m in that number. Hey! I’ve been busy!

“But in this world nothing can be said to be certain, except death and taxes.” With all due respect to Benjamin Franklin, Daniel Defoe, and Christopher Bullock...well...yes, and no. Taxes for sure are certain. Even Jesus and the apostles knew about taxes. I mean, remember that whole census tax conversation around the Roman coin bearing Caesar’s likeness? But as believers, we know that death isn’t really death. “Peace be with you,” Jesus tells his friends again this week when he shows up in their midst. They think they’re seeing a ghost, but Jesus puts them at ease: “Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” Jesus proceeds to show the disciples his hands and his feet, and his friends are “incredulous for joy.” As we should all be, knowing what we know. April 15/16/17 may be Tax Day, and there may be no escaping it. But we are an Easter people, and we know that ultimately, Franklin, DeFoe, and Bullock—though certainly insightful, all—only got it half-right.

Thank you for your continued support of St. Vincent de Paul Parish! Your commitment is vital to the fiscal health of our parish. For convenient regular giving, please consider using our auto-withdrawal program.

Welcome

Thank you for being with us! As you explore what St. Vincent has to offer, please reach out to a member of the parish staff to answer any questions. We ask all who regularly join us in worship to take a moment to register. This enables us to serve you better and takes only a couple of minutes. Registration can be done through the Parish Center during business hours, or by visiting us online at www.stvdep.org.

We Welcome the Following New Parishioners: Dan Schunk, Matthew Warner

Private Prayer in the Church
Please enter the church for private prayer through the Parish Center during regular office hours.

Finding Your Way Around

Restrooms: Public restrooms are located in the narthex and Parish Center.

Parish Center: Staff offices and meeting rooms are housed in the Parish Center. Reception for the public is located in this building to the west of the church and to the back of the courtyard.

Ozanam Room: Large meeting and activity room on the first floor at the end of the hall.

Portail Room: Small conference room on the first floor across from the kitchen.

St. Vincent Room: Large meeting room on the lower level.

Narthex: Large gathering space at the main doors on Webster Avenue.

Sacristy: Room behind the west side of the sanctuary where the priest and other ministers prepare for liturgical celebrations. This room also provides access to the Parish Center.

Parking
Parking behind the church is permitted for parishioners and guests attending weekend masses and Friday wedding rehearsals. Parking at all other times without a proper DePaul University faculty/staff permit is subject to towing at the owner’s expense. Public parking is available at the university garage on Sheffield (at Fullerton). Tickets may be validated for two hours at Parish Center reception, or at the Sheffield entrance of the church while attending church-related functions.

Disabled Access
A ramped sidewalk can be accessed from the rear parking lot to the Sheffield entrance of the church. There is a ramped access to the sacristy from the church which allows access to the Parish Center through the sacristy. All of our restrooms are disabled-accessible.

Mother Seton Food Pantry and Sandwich Kitchen
Located in the northeast corner of the church (access is through the wheelchair door on Sheffield), the sandwich kitchen is open Monday-Saturday from 8:15-10 a.m. The food pantry is open on Tuesdays from 10:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering in the morning, or to help prepare meals or shop, please contact Fr. Jeremy Dixon at JDIXON20@depaul.edu.

Office for the Protection of Children and Youth
If you would like more information about child protection in the Archdiocese of Chicago or how to report abuse, please go to http://www.archchicago.org/departments/protection/protection.shtm or call Jan Slattery, OPCY Director at 312-534-5319.
Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
