This Sunday is traditionally called “Good Shepherd Sunday.” On this Sunday, the Gospel reading always comes from John, where Jesus speaks in metaphors and parables about being the shepherd of the sheep. The Good Shepherd is one of the most well-known images of Jesus in the New Testament, and one that brings comfort and peace.

However, most of us don’t have first-hand knowledge of sheep or shepherds. The only sheep we may see are in the Lincoln Park Zoo and the challenges of being a shepherd are a challenge to translate into our modern lives. Yet it is an important metaphor for Christ’s love and concern. The shepherd who gently leads his flock; the shepherd who calls each one by name; the shepherd who guards and protects us from danger – these are all ways in which we can relate to Jesus and know better his love and goodness in our lives.

Pope Francis has spoken many times to priests and bishops, the modern “shepherds” of the Church, on their need to imitate the compassion and love of Christ in their ministry. He famously told them that to be a good shepherd, they must have “the smell of the sheep.” A good shepherd walks with the community entrusted to his care; he doesn’t stay aloof or so far ahead that no one follows. A good shepherd tends to his community with compassion and gentleness, encouraging and supporting all, especially those who are hurt, struggling or lost.

While I have not completely mastered this, this model of the Good Shepherd is one I try to emulate as your pastor. In all that I do and say, I seek to be a witness of Christ’s love and compassion. I try to lay down my life and give up control to better serve you. While I fail at this just like everyone else, it doesn’t change my intentions or my hope that I will continue to grow and transform.

All of us, each in their own particular way, are called to be imitators of the Good Shepherd. We are invited to help and assist those who are hurt or lost, those who are poor, and those who struggle with life. We have confidence that when we seek to live out the compassion and love of Christ in our lives, we are not alone, but that Christ himself walks with us to encourage us and lift us up on his shoulders. As John says, “See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.” (1 John 3:1) Let us open ourselves up more to this great love that God so freely gives to us, and be those witnesses of compassion and love to others.

We also welcome back today Fr. Jim Osendorf, who recently served as a chaplain at DePaul. Fr. Jim is the vocation director for the Vincentians, and he is here to encourage more vocations to the Vincentian Family. Is Jesus calling you to serve his people as a priest, brother or sister? May you hear that voice and respond with generosity. If you feel you may have this call, please reach out to me or Fr. Jim.
If you were unable to attend the Renew My Church Parish Town Hall meeting on April 12th, we want to hear from you!

Dear Father Jeremy:

St. Vincent De Paul collected a total of $1,858,66 for The Women’s Center in the 2018 Baby Bottle Project!

We are grateful for the generosity of your parish and the wonderful donation we received from you and the parishioners. It is wonderful that you believe in our Life Saving Mission and that your parish is so charitable. We appreciate your help with this endeavor. Since the Baby Bottle project is an essential part of our organization’s fundraising, it is an incredible blessing to us and the women and babies we serve that we can count on your support.

These funds allow us to provide material and financial assistance to women in crisis pregnancies. By choosing life for their babies they can be assured that they will be provided with the many necessities they require. We have over 3500 appointments with women every year and give away over $500,000 in material goods!

We want to express to you, Joan Buchanan, the office staff, the parishioners and everyone involved at your parish our sincere appreciation. We have provided a few posters for display at your church to extend our gratitude and recognition of your great accomplishment.

We are indeed thankful for all that your parish and you do on behalf of defending LIFE!

May God bless you always and congratulations and thanks again!

Sincerely in Christ,

Midwest Mariapolis

If you or your family are looking for a different kind of experience this summer, something which is not simply a holiday or a retreat, then the Mariapolis (City of Mary) might be just for you.

What is a Mariapolis? It is an event organized by the Focolare Movement and is characteristic of its spirit: it is a gathering of people of all ages and backgrounds, spending a few days together putting into practice the Gospel message of love. The main guideline for these gatherings, which take place in many countries throughout the world, is the ‘Golden Rule’, which invites us to do to others what we would like to be done to us. It is an opportunity to experience what happens in a day-to-day life when we have listening, gift of self and sharing as the basis for our relationships.

The Midwest Mariapolis is taking place from June 29 to July 3 in Green Lake, Wisconsin. Registration is now open, visit http://www.midwestmariapolis.org Registration deadline is April 30. For more information, email midwest@focolare.us or call 773-536-7873 or 708-484-9771.
Please Support the DePaul students on their Faith Journey

Fr. Chris Robinson, CM is leading ten DePaul University students and three Mission and Ministry staff members on a 200 km walking pilgrimage along the Camino de Santiago in Galicia, Spain this summer. This pilgrimage is a great opportunity for students to deepen their faith, journey with others from all over the world, and pause their busy lives for spiritual reflection. Please help them make their way to the Camino! Students and staff from the pilgrimage will be at the back of the church after all the Masses on Saturday, April 28 and Sunday, April 29 with information about their trip. Please visit https://inspire.depaul.edu/project/9653 to learn more about how you can help. You may also email Fr. Chris at crobinso@depaul.edu.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Most languages take the name for this fifty-day season from the Lord's Passover: Pasqua in Italian, Pâques in French, Paach in Dutch, Pascha in Greek and Russian. English has a much newer name, the name of a pagan goddess, Eoster. For centuries before Christianity took hold, in both Germany and Britain the spring equinox was dedicated to her and the concepts of fertility and rebirth. She was said to be a playful spirit, following the Sun King's chariot, and ending the reign of winter. She had a magical companion, a rabbit who hid eggs in the fields to coax plants and animals to rebirth. It was believed that Eoster once came across a bird with broken wings and saved it by turning it into a rabbit--an egg-laying rabbit at that! Although they were baptized, most people didn't take to the new Latin name (Pascha Domini) too easily, and kept calling the spring equinox by the old accustomed name. For good measure, they kept a pagan name for Christmas, too: Yule.

ON STONE CARVING, SLC, MORMONISM, AND CORNERSTONES
Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

So I took a stone carving class years ago. My initial effort wasn’t half bad, and it remains in my mind one of my best artistic efforts. I carved three sides of the alabaster stone—roughly the shape of a large shoebox with a sloped top—with these words: “With Love...the stone to beauty grows...and quietly sing the stars.” There were twenty people in the class, and I can’t recall anyone else’s work except for one. A classmate named David started with a stone about the same height as mine but with a deep fissure running vertically through it. Apparently hearing the old Christian hymn in his head, David carved, “Rock of Ages...” on one side of the fissure; he carved “cleft for me” on the other.

I haven’t thought of David’s stone for a long time, but it comes to mind today in conjunction with today’s readings and in conjunction with my recent visit to Salt Lake City on a business assignment. I spent most of my time in the Salt Palace convention center, but when out and about, I saw the centerpiece of the city, the Salt Lake Temple, a multi-spired edifice that takes your breath away for its beauty. Late one afternoon I saw it silhouetted by the clouds with rays of sunshine coming down from above. It was all very biblical, prompting one of my traveling colleagues to sing hallelujah! and to recall Joseph Smith’s vision and/or Brigham Young’s assessment that Salt Lake was the place.

I never took any comparative religion classes in college—I’ve never even seen The Book of Mormon—so, I can’t tell you much about Mormonism. I looked it up online and got about a gazillion hits (3,380,000 anyway…), and that’s just way too much work. Accordingly, I did what I sometimes do when overwhelmed by the World Wide Web: I turned to our Grolier’s Encyclopedia. Here we go.

Mormonism: “...a way of life practiced by members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, often called Mormons or Latter-day Saints...Mormons use the Bible, the Book of Mormon, and two other books of revelations to Joseph Smith as their standard scriptures, thus they share most of the beliefs of traditional Christianity but with some modification...”

Hmmmm. “...the beliefs of traditional Christianity.” I told an Evangelical friend once that I wasn’t sure who they were religiously, or what they were all about. He responded, “I think you’re an Evangelical.” That was decades ago, and the words still make me smile. Like the Mormons, apparently—and for sure, my Evangelical friend—I believe that Jesus is the Christ. Crucified. Died. Risen. Everything else to my way of thinking is periphery. To use Peter’s words from today’s first reading when the religious elite ask him by whose authority he cured a beggar unable to walk, “If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple...then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead....He is the stone rejected by you...which has become the cornerstone...” Truly, David, “Rock of Ages...cleft for me.” For all of us.
