The Gospel we hear today is one of the many options that the Church provides for brides and grooms at their wedding, and it is one of my favorite passages to reflect upon at a wedding. Jesus’ words are very appropriate for a newlywed couple, calling them to sacrifice for one another and to love one another. Yet it would be a disservice to believe that it is only meant for them. All of us as Christians are called to the same sacrificial love. As we follow Christ, we too lay down our life for others and give of ourselves. We seek to follow the example of Jesus, who gave all of himself for each one of us. We seek to emulate this generous spirit.

The other readings today speak about this generosity of God. Simply because God is love does God do this for us; God simply wants us to receive this love and joy and be fulfilled. The love and generosity of God is boundless as both Peter and John experienced. No one is beyond the love of God or the presence of the Holy Spirit in their lives. Although we at times feel disconnected from God and others, no one is beyond redemption. This is the message that God gave to Peter and the disciples in the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, as Cornelius, a pagan Roman, receives the Holy Spirit.

Why does God act this way? Often, we put onto God our own biases and feelings. We may judge or critique others who are different from us, people who do not act or speak like we do. Sometimes, we even judge other believers, thinking that perhaps they are outside of God's grace because of what they do or who they are. At times, we also put this feeling on ourselves, that we are beyond redemption for who we are or what we have done. The Scriptures today reject this and call us to embrace God's love in our own lives and welcome the other as Christ did. Why does God act this way? Out of pure love for each individual person.

John says, “Everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.” As we love, as we give ourselves to God and one another through our words and actions, we come to know God better. We also are friends of God, as Jesus says. When we can receive the great love that God has for us, we can respond with that same generous spirit of love and welcome. We can go and bear fruit in the world, the fruits of kindness, mercy, generosity and love.
To Teach Who Christ Is Capital Campaign Reminder

As you may remember three years ago, our parish was blessed to receive $800,000 in pledges during the To Teach Who Christ Is campaign, and raise 100% of our goal. Thank you!

As you may know, we receive our share of campaign funds as pledges are paid. To date, over $268,000 has been returned to us, and we have already directed these funds to capital repairs, such as repairing some of the windows, the roof and tuck-pointing, as well as support our outreach and ministry. As more pledges are fulfilled, we will begin some repairs at the base of the north side of the church. We hope to begin this project this summer. Please support the parish by fulfilling your pledge. We are near the point where all of the pledge payments will be returned 100% to the parish! If you are new to the parish and would like to donate, you can go to ToTeachWhoChristIs.org

Parish goal: $800,000
Total gifts and pledges: $800,000
Total paid on pledges: $460,000
Total returned to our parish: $268,740

If you have a question about your pledge, please contact the To Teach Who Christ Is office at 312.534.8500 or go to ToTeachWhoChristIs.org

Want to serve? No experience necessary!!

Your assistance is needed to help in our daily soup kitchen. Volunteers help to prepare the meal, welcome our guests and serve coffee and tea. Volunteers arrive at 7:30am and finish by 10:15. It is rewarding and a great way to give back to others in need. If you’re available, please contact outreach@stvdep.org

If you’re unable to volunteer, you can still participate in the mission by supporting the ministry with your financial resources. Go to stvdep.org/donate, click on the button and choose “Food Pantry/Soup Kitchen.”

Thank you for your continued support!
Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Mother’s Day is a day we honor and remember the special women in our lives who have nurtured, loved and shaped us into the people we are today. It is through their unconditional love that we begin to understand the depth of Christ’s love for us, and his command to share that love with one another.

On Mother’s Day, each of us will have an opportunity to share Christ’s unconditional love with the poor and vulnerable through our gift to the Catholic Charities Mother’s Day Collection. For Catholic Charities, charity is not just about providing material assistance, but acting with the same love and mercy that Jesus showed to restore people’s dignity and give them the hope of a brighter future. Catholic Charities counts on our volunteer and financial support to offer comprehensive programs that get to the root cause of suffering, address multiple needs, and help people rebuild their lives for the better.

Pope Francis has used a powerful image of the Church as “field hospitals.” During war, field hospitals are situated right on battlegrounds—close to the wounded who need help. Similarly, as part of the Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago, Catholic Charities 150 service locations are very much like field hospitals, helping those who are suffering, and located in neighborhoods that have sadly become like real battlegrounds, plagued with violence and despair. Catholic Charities program sites are safe havens in desperate areas and their staff and volunteers are truly ministers of mercy, providing help through a hot meal, a bag of food, a place to live, the care of a child or elderly relative, counseling, job training, job placement, or all of these things. Serving nearly one million people each year, Catholic Charities brings Christ’s love and mercy to the people and the places that need it most.

Please accept my sincere gratitude for your past support of the Catholic Charities Mother’s Day Collection, and please consider being as generous as you can again this year. Contributions can be made during the second collection on Mother’s Day, anytime at www.catholiccharities.net/donate, or mail your gift to Catholic Charities, 721 N. LaSalle St., Chicago, IL 60654. May God bless you and those you love this Mother’s Day and always. With every good wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago
My name is Othello Anderson. I am an artist and musician and a retired professor from the UIC and the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and my wife, Leslie Linke, is a retired Speech Language Pathologist who has worked in the schools for more than 35 years. In 2013, I started to attend St. Vincent’s with my wife, Leslie, a long time parishioner. I could see that St. Vincent’s meant a lot to her and wanted to see what the draw was. I was immediately welcomed into the parish family. Although I was raised as a Methodist, I felt an affinity to the inspirational services, beautiful church, excellent music, and warm parishioners. After attending Mass for several months and serving as an usher/greeter, I wanted to make more of a commitment to the parish.

I began to attend the RCIA Program (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults). I was supported through this journey by our leader, Rebecca Carmichael, my sponsor, Linda Vaeth, and my wife, Leslie. The RCIA program helped me to know the Catholic faith and to understand the Vincentian Mission. Upon completion, I felt I had a renewed relationship with God and a new home at St. Vincent de Paul.

Together, Leslie and I serve the parish and the Vincentian Mission in many ways. I am an usher/greeter at the 10:00 am Mass and Leslie sings in the 10:00 am choir and serves on the Community Life Commission and the newly formed Vincentian Women’s Group. We enjoy and attend the many parish sponsored social opportunities to get to know our fellow parishioners and opportunities to serve the Vincentian Mission.

We both feel a personal connection to the Mission of St. Vincent de Paul. It says a lot that Leslie has been a parishioner for nearly forty years and that I chose to join her. Our faith, our fellow parishioners, our beautiful and historic church building, and the inspirational and moving music and liturgical services root us here. We are very grateful to belong to this parish.

“If God is the center of your life, no words are necessary. Your mere presence will touch hearts.”

SETON SOUP KITCHEN
Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of men’s or women’s white socks.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

VISITING THE SICK
From Liberation Theology to Health Care: Lessons Learned in Rural Ecuador

Thursday, May 10
6:30pm Reception | 7:00pm Presentation
DePaul Student Center, Rm. 220 (2250 N. Sheffield Ave.)

How has missionary medicine evolved? In the past, it meant foreigners delivering health care to underserved communities who were dependent on outside resources and personnel. But today, in most areas of Latin America, opportunities exist for nonprofit foundations to work with local personnel and even local financing.

Drawing on 20 years of experience in rural Ecuador, Dr. David Gaus, an American physician and public health expert, explores this evolution as well as its parallels with liberation theology, born in Latin America out of the people’s needs to interpret the Bible for themselves in their own communities.

David Gaus, MD, is the founder/CEO of Andean Health & Development (AHD), a nonprofit that provides high-quality, sustainable health care in rural Ecuador and operates a residency program for local family physicians. Honored by the World Economic Forum as Social Entrepreneur of the Year (2010), he lives in Quito.

2017-18 Corporal Works of Mercy Series
Found in the teachings of Jesus, the corporal works of mercy respond to the basic physical (corporal) needs of our human family. They give us a model for how we should treat all others—as if they were Christ in disguise.

Midwest Mariapolis

If you or your family are looking for a different kind of experience this summer, something which is not simply a holiday or a retreat, then the Mariapolis (City of Mary) might be just for you.

What is a Mariapolis? It is an event organized by the Focolare Movement and is characteristic of its spirit: it is a gathering of people of all ages and backgrounds, spending a few days together putting into practice the Gospel message of love. The main guideline for these gatherings, which take place in many countries throughout the world, is the ‘Golden Rule’, which invites us to do to others what we would like to be done to us. It is an opportunity to experience what happens in a day-to-day life when we have listening, gift of self and sharing as the basis for our relationships.

The Midwest Mariapolis is taking place from June 29 to July 3 in Green Lake, Wisconsin. Registration is now open, visit http://www.midwestmariapolis.org Registration deadline is April 30. For more information, email midwest@focolare.us or call 773-536-7873 or 708-484-9771.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In ancient Rome, the beautiful month of May was dedicated to the goddess Flora, the patroness of flowers and new life. May 1 was considered the beginning of abundant growth, and a day for public festivals aimed at expelling winter. Even after Christianity took hold, the customs of the pagan feast lingered behind. Long ago, there was a thirty-day devotion to Mary, sometimes called "Lady Month," which began on August 15. By the eighteenth century, the custom of assigning devotions to months of the year was developing. June, for example, was the month of the Sacred Heart, and October was for the Holy Rosary.

Beginning with the Jesuit Order in Rome and spreading throughout the world, May has been celebrated as the month of Mary, the Blessed Mother, for more than two hundred years. That was a welcome remedy to some enduring pagan practices, such as maypole dancing and the crowning of the May Queen. Some historians say that in ancient times the May Queen was actually a human sacrifice. Devoting May to Mary is undoubtedly a better thing to do.

ON EARTH WEEK, GOLDEN RULES, AND LOVING ONE ANOTHER
Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

Everybody knows about Earth Day. Everybody at least probably knows that we need to pollute less and recycle more, and Earth Day keeps this in front of us. I had a pair of earth shoes once, but I digress… Earth Day. Seems like it’s been around forever, no? Maybe, but not quite. Per one online site, “First celebrated in 1970, Earth Day events in more than 193 countries are now coordinated globally by the Earth Day Network.” Nice. We have only one earth, after all, and we need to take care of it. My employer got into the act by pulling together a series of Earth Day/Earth Week events 4/23 – 4/27 and inviting everyone in the company to play.

Yeah. On Monday they sent out a recycling guide encouraging us to “Think green” with reminders like, “Every ton of paper that is recycled saves seventeen trees,” and “The amount of wood and paper we throw away is enough to heat fifty million homes for twenty years.” Gee. When you put it that way… On Tuesday, they encouraged us to bring our own utensils. I did, but people who know me know that I like keeping a fork close at hand anyway. You know. In case cake shows up. On Wednesday, we were asked to recycle our plastic bags. I brought in plastic bags—full. Thursday was “Accessory Exchange Day.” Perhaps I’ll miss them, but those ties were so 1980…

And Friday? Friday was Clean-up Day! Here, we were given brown paper bags and blue plastic gloves and sent out into the surrounding world to pick up trash for an hour. Unfortunately, filling our collective bags wasn’t hard to do. Candy wrappers. Cardboard boxes. Paper towels. Plastic straws. Foam cups. Beer cans. Water bottles. And a couple of (unmatched) hubcaps. Actually, I can overlook the hubcaps, given that they may have popped off unknownst to the drivers who lost them. But I’m thinking everything else was purposefully discarded—and, since we worked stretches of grassy and wooded land adjacent to Arlington Heights Road in Elk Grove Village—probably from a passing car. The word is overused, but...really?

I asked a friend how people could possibly think it’s OK to throw their trash onto my landscape. Daisy helped me see the irony of it all. Litterers don’t want the stuff in their cars because they see it for what it is: garbage. Thinking only of themselves, then, they get rid of it by putting it into the larger world. Idiots. Litter used to just annoy me. Now it seriously annoys me. As I’ve been telling my children since they were small, “Be mindful of those who come after you.” Essentially, this is the golden rule (or, as Jesus tells us specifically in his sermon on the plain: “Do to others as you would have them do to you”). Essentially, too, it’s what he tells us today: “This I command you: love one another.” I’m sure those people throwing out their candy wrappers, cardboard boxes, paper towels, plastic straws, foam cups, beer cans, and water bottles weren’t thinking about this at the time. Perhaps Earth Day/Week—even in arrears—will help them think about it next time, before they let the litter fly.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion.
