In many ways, the feast of the Holy Trinity, which we celebrate today, is a celebration of community. Because God is a community (communion) of persons -- Father, Son and Holy Spirit -- we too are invited into relationship with one another. We have a wonderful parish community because of you. It is not me or the staff that create community, but each one of you seeking to grow together, serve together and deepen your faith together. On this celebration, we rejoice in the fact that we are beloved children of God walking the road of faith together. We reflect on how we continue to support and strengthen one another.

As we begin to find ministries and activities to do together in our parish grouping (St Josaphat, St Teresa, St Michael and Immaculate Conception/St Joseph), it is important that we extend our sense of community to the wider Church. Our mission as a parish community and as the Church in Chicago is to go forth and proclaim the Good News that Jesus died and rose again for us. We emulate his self-giving love and mercy through our witness.

We have a wonderful example to follow in our patron St. Vincent de Paul. He worked tirelessly to serve the needs of people in poverty and bring the light of faith and love to the marginalized. How we adapt that mission in our context today is the question, and Renew My Church has helped us to reflect upon it. Although this is a challenge, our Gospel today reminds us that Christ is always with us on this journey and that the Holy Spirit leads us to a deeper relationship with him.

Today, as we commemorate Memorial Day, we also give thanks for the people of faith who have gone before us and taught us how to love and praise God and serve others. We give thanks for the people 120 years ago who built our magnificent church. We give thanks for the countless people who have supported our community and service through the years. Let today be a day to remember that we stand on the shoulders of so many who have gone before.

As we seek to engage each other and newcomers in the Mission, let us pray that we continue to be guided by the Holy Spirit. Thank you for your support of the Mission and let us celebrate our successes and go forth bravely into the future!

From the Pastor

My name is Othello Anderson. I am an artist and musician and a retired professor from the UIC and the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and my wife, Leslie Linke, is a retired Speech Language Pathologist who has worked in the schools for more than 35 years. In 2013, I started to attend St. Vincent’s with my wife, Leslie, a long time parishioner. I could see that St. Vincent’s meant a lot to her and wanted to see what the draw was. I was immediately welcomed into the parish family. Although I was raised as a Methodist, I felt an affinity to the inspirational services, beautiful church, excellent music, and warm parishioners. After attending Mass for several months and serving as an usher/greeter, I wanted to make more of a commitment to the parish.

I began to attend the RCIA Program (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults). I was supported through this journey by our leader, Rebecca Carmichael, my sponsor, Linda Vaeth, and my wife, Leslie. The RCIA program helped me to know the Catholic faith and to understand the Vincentian Mission. Upon completion, I felt I had a renewed relationship with God and a new home at St. Vincent de Paul.

Together, Leslie and I serve the parish and the Vincentian Mission in many ways. I am an usher/greeter at the 10:00 am Mass and Leslie sings in the 10:00 am choir and serves on the Community Life Commission and the newly formed Vincentian Women’s Group. We enjoy and attend the many parish sponsored social opportunities to get to know our fellow parishioners and opportunities to serve the Vincentian Mission.

We both feel a personal connection to the Mission of St. Vincent de Paul. It says a lot that Leslie has been a parishioner for nearly forty years and that I chose to join her. Our faith, our fellow parishioners, our beautiful and historic church building, and the inspirational and moving music and liturgical services root us here. We are very grateful to belong to this parish.

“If God is the center of your life, no words are necessary. Your mere presence will touch hearts.”

Memorial Mass

Towards the end of March, longtime parishioner Patricia “Patty” Hayes passed away after a fight with cancer. Her funeral was at her family’s home near St. Louis. Patty was an usher at the Saturday evening mass and a member of the parish Finance Commission. In addition, she was active in the Sheffield Neighborhood Association, co-chairing the Sheffield Garden Walk for many years.

We will be celebrating a memorial mass on Saturday June 9 at 11am in the church. All in our community are invited to attend to pray for Patty and her family, and to celebrate and give thanks for her life.
Congratulations to all of those who received the sacrament of Confirmation!

What will be offered?
Children will be put in one of three classes. The first will be a pre-First Communion class. This is for children who have not yet made their First Communion, usually kindergarten and first grade. The Archdiocese of Chicago requires that all children receive two years of religious education before receiving any sacrament. The second will be a post-First Communion class with children up to fifth grade. This class is for those students who have received their First Communion. The third class is a First Communion class for students who have completed their pre-First Communion class.

How does it work?
St. Vincent de Paul parish uses the family catechesis model. We believe that parents are the primary teachers of their children, and the church is there to assist and help them. In this format, parents and children meet together for class once per month to discuss themes and topics. Take-home materials are provided to continue the lessons at home. Weekly mass attendance is also a requirement.

When do you meet?
Monthly classes are on the second Sunday of the month after the 10am mass and last until 12:00pm.

Are there other options?
Yes! If you prefer a traditional model of weekly classes, our neighboring parishes offer opportunities on different days of the week (St. Josaphat, St. Clement, St. Alphonsus, St. Michael). St. Teresa offers the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for young children, which is based on the Montessori educational model.

How do I register?
If your family is interested, please contact Rebecca Allen BY SEPTEMBER 30th to receive a registration form (rcarmic1@depaul.edu). If your family did not participate in our classes this past year, families must meet with Fr. Jeremy. Due to our space limitations, class sizes will be capped at 10 children.
ON ROYAL WEDDINGS, AND ROYAL BLOODLINES
Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

So I got up around 6:30 last Saturday morning to go out for a run. My wife got up at the same time because it was a work day for her. We had the TV on early to catch the weather, but we ended up catching something else: the royal wedding coverage. It’s funny. I’d had a conversation about it with a friend the day prior. I asked her if she’d be watching. Daisy said that she wouldn’t be getting up at 4:00 AM, but that she’d have the TV on later in the day. I told her that all things royal were lost on me. She said she understood, but acknowledged she enjoyed such events from a see-how-the-other-half-lives perspective. I admitted to her later on that I actually enjoyed watching it, too.

Gail and I both headed out, though, and I figured that was that. And it was. Until Saturday evening. Because while we had planned to go see the new Avengers movie that night, we ended up staying on the couch instead to catch the nuptials on a PBS repeat broadcast. Royal sightings. Celebrity sightings. And what’s with those sideways hats that many of the women were wearing? Gail said they’re called “fascinators.” Probably because it’s fascinating how they don’t fall off. This aside, the whole thing was good television. Daisy was right regarding her see-how-the-other-half-lives perspective. And as I consider today’s Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity celebration, I ponder it from a perspective inspired by New Zealand pop singer Lorde’s 2013 hit, Royals.

Lorde begins that song by putting herself in a common person’s position (“I’ve never seen a diamond in the flesh/ I cut my teeth on wedding rings in the movies/ And I’m not proud of my address, in the torn up town/ No post code envy”), then speaks of how-the-other-half lives (“But everybody’s like Cristal, Maybach, diamonds on your timepiece/ Jet planes, islands, tigers on a gold leash…” before concluding that this isn’t the life for her or for her friends (“And we’ll never be royals/ It don’t run in our blood/ That kind of lux just ain’t for us…”)). But we are. Royals, I mean. Maybe not the kind that serves Cristal champagne or drives Maybachs or goes to weddings in Windsor Castle, but royals just the same.

I mean, look who our Father is: the Creator of the universe. And look who moves in us: the Spirit of the Lord. The Apostle Paul tells us in today’s second reading that those led by this Spirit are children of God. Well...that’s us, no? And if we are sons and daughters of God, then we are brothers and sisters to the Christ. And the Christ is King of the universe, for heaven’s sake. And nobody out-royals Jesus, so don’t you see? We have royal blood flowing through us all day long. Amazing royal blood. Oh, we forget this sometimes. I do, anyway. But when I take the time to remember it—when I take the time to let it really sink in—it takes my breath away. I like Lorde’s song, but she got it wrong. We are royals to the max. It does run in our blood. I got it wrong, too, though. I told Daisy that all things royal were lost on me. More correctly, all things royal flow in me. All things royal is who I am. Is who we all are.
Encouraging women to build friendship and community in our parish through faith and service.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.
