Recently, the plight of migrants and refugees has been a focal point of the news. Not only in the United States, but around the world, doors are being shut to prevent them from fleeing violence, war and poverty. I normally do not speak about political issues, but I want to join my voice to so many others, including Pope Francis, Cardinal Cupich and many other priests, bishops and lay people, who see these actions as contrary to the Gospel. I understand the need to protect borders and to enforce a sound immigration policy, but our broken system is only getting worse, and no solution seems to be in sight. From Dreamers to separation of families to restricting asylum seekers, many of our sisters and brothers live in fear and anxiety. Isaiah says in our first reading today, “I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.” How can the love of God spread in our world if we are not a light of hope to all people? How does the rejection of our sisters and brothers mesh with the simple words of Jesus, “I was a stranger and you welcomed me.”?

Below are some quotes on this matter from leaders of the Church. I encourage you to make your voice heard as well. The Archdiocese has numerous resources and ways to get involved by going to https://pvm.archchicago.org/human-dignity-solidarity/get-involved/resources-for-migrants-and-refugees. Just as John the Baptist proclaimed the coming of Jesus, we too need to do the same in our world today.

“We need to avoid a common temptation nowadays: to discard whatever proves troublesome. Let us remember the Golden Rule: ‘Do unto others as you would have them do unto you’ (Mt 7:12). This Rule points us in a clear direction. Let us treat others with the same passion and compassion with which we want to be treated. Let us seek for others the same possibilities which we seek for ourselves. Let us help others to grow, as we would like to be helped ourselves. In a word, if we want security, let us give security; if we want life, let us give life; if we want opportunities, let us provide opportunities. The yardstick we use for others will be the yardstick which time will use for us.”

— Pope Francis, Address to Congress, September 24, 2015

“The story of our salvation in Jesus begins with the story of refugees. The Holy Family were refugees. It is at the core of who we are to ensure that those who are on a journey are protected by the Church and that we advocate on their behalf.”

— Cardinal Cupich

“At its core, asylum is an instrument to preserve the right to life. The Attorney General’s recent decision elicits deep concern because it potentially strips asylum from many women who lack adequate protection. These vulnerable women will now face return to the extreme dangers of domestic violence in their home country. This decision negates decades of precedents that have provided protection to women fleeing domestic violence. Unless overturned, the decision will erode the capacity of asylum to save lives, particularly in cases that involve asylum seekers who are persecuted by private actors. We urge courts and policy makers to respect and enhance, not erode, the potential of our asylum system to preserve and protect the right to life.

“Additionally, I join Bishop Joe Vásquez, Chairman of USCCB’s Committee on Migration, in condemning the continued use of family separation at the U.S./Mexico border as an implementation of the Administration’s zero tolerance policy. Our government has the discretion in our laws to ensure that young children are not separated from their parents and exposed to irreparable harm and trauma. Families are the foundational element of our society and they must be able to stay together. While protecting our borders is important, we can and must do better as a government, and as a society, to find other ways to ensure that safety. Separating babies from their mothers is not the answer and is immoral.”

— Statement of Cardinal Daniel DiNardo of Houston, President of the US Conference of Catholic Bishops, speaking for the US bishops

SETON SOUP KITCHEN

Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of canned fruit.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m.
News & Notes

What will be offered?
Children will be put in one of three classes. The first will be a pre-First Communion class. This is for children who have not yet made their First Communion, usually kindergarten and first grade. The Archdiocese of Chicago requires that all children receive two years of religious education before receiving any sacrament. The second will be a post-First Communion class with children up to fifth grade. This class is for those students who have received their First Communion. The third class is a First Communion class for students who have completed their pre-First Communion class.

How does it work?
St. Vincent de Paul parish uses the family catechesis model. We believe that parents are the primary teachers of their children, and the church is there to assist and help them. In this format, parents and children meet together for class once per month to discuss themes and topics. Take-home materials are provided to continue the lessons at home. Weekly mass attendance is also a requirement.

When do you meet?
Monthly classes are on the second Sunday of the month after the 10am mass and last until 12:00pm.

Are there other options?
Yes! If you prefer a traditional model of weekly classes, our neighboring parishes offer opportunities on different days of the week (St. Josaphat, St. Clement, St. Alphonsus, St. Michael). St. Teresa offers the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for young children, which is based on the Montessori educational model.

How do I register?
If your family is interested, please contact Rebecca Allen BY SEPTEMBER 30th to receive a registration form (carmic1@depaul.edu). If your family did not participate in our classes this past year, families must meet with Fr. Jeremy. Due to our space limitations, class sizes will be capped at 10 children.
ON SOLSTICES, AND JOHN THE BAPTIST

Inspired by the gift my wife gave me for Valentine’s Day (tickets to the Adler Planetarium), I wrote a song called Starshine, Divine. Per a few of its lines, “if you have a favorite constellation/ let’s leave the neon glare behind/ in favor of a higher elevation/ ‘cause heaven's cool, and worth the climb.” I have a thing for things celestial, and maybe for the same reason other sky gazers do. Specifically, things celestial help me see better that we are all part of something much bigger than ourselves. This isn’t a new concept, certainly. If you read between the (pictographic) lines, ancient cave dwellers understood this notion precisely the same. There’s just something about looking up, I guess.

Soon—on Wednesday 6/27—people around here can look up to see the full moon. The full strawberry moon specifically, as described by The Old Farmer’s Almanac. And recently—on Thursday 6/21—we celebrated another celestial event of sorts: the summer solstice. As again described by the Almanac, this occurs when the sun reaches its northernmost point from the equator and sits high in the sky, its rays striking the earth at a more direct—and more heating-efficient—angle. Also, “The word solstice comes from the Latin solstitium, from sol (sun) and stitium (stop), reflecting the fact that the sun appears to stop at this time (and again at the winter solstice).” I didn’t know that, but I know it’s the single day each year with the most hours of sunlight.

And roughly six months from now—on Friday, 12/21—we’ll be celebrating the winter solstice, when the opposite of pretty much everything we just talked about happens. The solstitium part doesn’t change, but all the other things flip-flop. Come the winter solstice, the sun will be at its southernmost point from the equator and will sit low in the sky. Here, as the Almanac explains, “its rays hit the northern hemisphere at an oblique angle, creating the feeble winter sunlight.” And again in opposite, it’s the single day of the year with the least hours of sunlight. All of which is significant, I think, as we celebrate today the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

How so? We know that the angel Gabriel told Zechariah he and his wife would have a son in their old age and that they were to name him John. We know that John leapt in Elizabeth’s womb when Elizabeth’s cousin Mary—then pregnant with the Christ—came to visit. We know that per Jesus, “among those born to women there has been none greater than John the Baptist.” And in the context of our solstice conversation, we know that when the Baptist’s disciples complained about Jesus gaining so many followers, John responded, “He must increase; I must decrease.” Well, there you go. We celebrate the Baptist’s birth at the time of the summer solstice, when the days are already growing shorter and shorter. And we celebrate our Lord’s birth at the time of the winter solstice, even as the days grow longer and longer. Yeah, I have a thing for things celestial, but John paid attention to the sun, too. Or the Son. As may we all. ‘Cause heaven’s cool, and worth the climb.

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.
