Miraculous Medal Novena
Monday mornings after the 8:00 a.m. Mass
There is a story told about St. Peter, that when he was in Rome after the Resurrection of Jesus, his friends urged him to leave the city to avoid execution by the Roman Empire. He decided to do so, and as he was leaving Rome, he met Christ. He fell down in adoration and asked, “Lord, where are you going?” And Jesus replied, “I am going to Rome to be crucified again.” And Peter asked him, “You are going to be crucified again?” And Jesus said, “Yes, I will be crucified again.” Peter said, “Lord, I will return and follow you.” Then Jesus disappeared. Peter realized that Jesus was talking about him, and that Jesus would be with him when he was crucified. And Peter returned to the city to face his death.

Before his encounter with Jesus, Peter had decided to leave and avoid persecution. Perhaps he thought it was too difficult; perhaps he was afraid. Whatever the reason, he made a choice. Then he encountered Christ and changed.

We too have a choice to make. Just as the Israelites in the first reading, like the early Christians in the time of St. Paul in the second reading and the disciples of Jesus in the Gospel, we are asked to decide. Who will we serve? Will we turn away because the teachings of Jesus, of the Church, are difficult to accept? Or because of the actions and inactions of some priests and bishops? Or will we turn in faith to the Lord, saying like Peter in the Gospel, “You are the Holy One of God. You have the words of eternal life.”

The faith that we share can be challenging. We are called to struggle through those challenges and difficulties, with faith that the Lord is with us, to help us and enlighten us. St. Thomas Aquinas said, “It is better to limp along the way of Christ than walk briskly by some other path.” Choosing to follow the Lord is not easy. Like some of the disciples of Jesus, it may be easier to simply turn away and go home, to go back to a life that doesn't call for sacrifice, that allows me to do whatever I want. The gods of today -- materialism, worldly success, selfishness, treating others as objects for my own use and pleasure -- promise an easy life, a fun life. Yet this is not the way to true life; in fact, it leads to emptiness and despair. The words of Scripture, the Body and Blood of Christ that we receive, is what leads us to life and a deeper relationship with God. This relationship with Jesus is what brings us true life. Our own encounter with Christ can change us and transform us to follow the path that leads to life.

The gift of God that we have received in Christ and the example that he gave us to live is what we are invited to choose today. It is a challenging choice. The choice has consequences. Yet God gives us the grace and the strength to make the right choice. We trust in the goodness and love of God to not abandon us, to not leave us or lead us astray. Let us choose to serve the Lord.

F. Jesus Direson CM

Charitable Remainder Trusts

Each week, we will look at different types of planned giving contributions and the financial benefits to you when your giving plan is in place. This week, we look at Charitable Remainder Trusts.

Like Gift Annuities, Charitable Remainder Trusts also provides you with a safe, secure source of income during your lifetime. By permanently transferring person-al assets to a Charitable Trust you receive a tax deduction now, and income for the rest of your life.

There are no capital gains when the trust’s assets are sold by the charity. Upon your death the remainder of the assets in the trust along with accrued income are transferred to the charity of your choice.

Two basic types of trusts are available. An Annuity Trust can be used to provide a guaranteed fixed amount of income for you and your loved ones. A Unitrust establishes a guaranteed rate of return based on the fair market value of the trust. Income varies with the value of the Unitrust, and the level of income received by you is adjusted on an annual basis.

Until We Meet Again...

This week, one of our regular priests will be leaving Chicago.

Fr. Tom Croak, CM, is a retired professor and attorney volunteering legal services to students. Having been stationed in Chicago for over 40 years, he has been a regular celebrant of mass at St. Vincent. He was ordained here in 1965 and after his many years of service, Fr. Croak will be moving to our retirement home in Perryville, MO to enjoy a well-deserved retirement.

We want to thank him for his dedication and service to our parish community, as well as the university community. Personally, I (Fr Jeremy) want to thank him for his help and support of me. It will be hard to imagine the parish and our community without him here.

And so we have Fr. Croak take leave with this traditional Irish blessing:

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind always be at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

Are you thinking of becoming a Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program for adults who would like to become Catholic. Adults who have not received the sacrament of baptism or communion participate in weekly classes to learn more about Catholicism and to grow in faith. Contact Rebecca by October 1st at rebeccarmichael@gmail.com for more information.

SETON SOUP KITCHEN

Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of mens or womens white socks.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.
What will be offered?
Children will be put in one of three classes. The first will be a pre-First Communion class. This is for children who have not yet made their First Communion, usually kindergarten and first grade. The Archdiocese of Chicago requires that all children receive two years of religious education before receiving any sacrament. The second will be a post-First Communion class with children up to fifth grade. This class is for those students who have received their First Communion. The third class is a First Communion class for students who have completed their pre-First Communion class.

How does it work?
St. Vincent de Paul parish uses the family catechesis model. We believe that parents are the primary teachers of their children, and the church is there to assist and help them. In this format, parents and children meet together for class once per month to discuss themes and topics. Take-home materials are provided to continue the lessons at home. Weekly mass attendance is also a requirement.

When do you meet?
Classes are held once a month after the 10:00 AM Mass and last until 12:00 PM.

Are there other options?
Yes! If you prefer a traditional model of weekly classes, our neighboring parishes offer opportunities on different days of the week (St. Josaphat, St. Clement, St. Alphonsus, St. Michael). St. Teresa offers the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for young children, which is based on the Montessori educational model.

How do I register?
If your family is interested, please contact Rebecca Allen BY AUGUST 31st to receive a registration form (rcarmic1@depaul.edu). If your family did not participate in our classes this past year, families must meet with Fr. Jeremy. Due to our space limitations, class sizes will be capped at 10 children.
Everybody, I think, likes a little mystery in their lives. Because as nice as it is to know everything, there should always be one more thing to know, even if—or perhaps especially if—the “knowing” is beyond our understanding. Which is probably what brought Einstein to this: “The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science. He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand rapt in awe,” he says, “is as good as dead: his eyes are closed.” I’m totally onboard with this, but it’s easy to get jaded...to be unimpressed with the little mysteries of life and to let them go therefore unnoticed.

The Apostle Paul knows of mystery, and in today’s second reading he puts marriage in this context. When my aunt passed away recently, she had been married to my uncle for seventy years. Doesn’t such a union qualify as mysterious and awe-some? Paul doesn’t dice words. “This is a great mystery,” he says, after giving us this set-up. “Husbands, love your wives...He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the Church, because we are members of his body. For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh...”

Yeah, that’s a mystery, OK. And not much can top Christ’s Bread of Life discourse that we’re been reading about when it comes to standing rapt in awe about something. Last week Jesus spelled it out for us: “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink...” Today, he addresses the aftermath. “Does this shock you?” he asks the murmuring disciples. “What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe...” Not enough wonder and awe, I guess. Or way, way, way too much.

Per the Gospel text, many of Christ’s disciples returned to their former ways of life and no longer accompanied him. They couldn’t swallow—literally—the Bread of Life. Would I have been one of them? I wonder about this sometimes. I come down on the side of faith, but certainly not on the side of understanding. My wife has an interesting take in all of this. Going beyond the true-food-and-true-drink element, she adds a substance—and essence element to the conversation. When we consume the Christ in Eucharist, we indeed consume his substance. This is the incomprehensible part. But in the doing, we also become one with Christ’s essence, which is more graspable for me, thus feeding my faith in the body-and-blood part. We’re not exactly one flesh, Gail and I, but her essence is part of me in a way I do not—cannot—understand. “He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand rapt in awe, is as good as dead: his eyes are closed.” To mystery, then! With eyes wide open...

Did you know that you can request a mass to be offered on behalf of your loved ones? Sometimes people will have a mass intention reserved on the anniversary of a death or to support someone during a difficult time. Other times mass is offered in thanksgiving on a birthday or other celebration. If you would like to reserve a mass intention, please contact the parish office at 773-325-8610 or simply stop by.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion.
