Miraculous Medal Novena
Monday mornings after the 8:00 a.m. Mass
In today’s Gospel, we hear about a rich young man who approached Jesus, asking “What must I do to inherit eternal life?” Although he was a good man and kept the commandments, Jesus pushed him to go further in his discipleship beyond simply keeping the rules. “Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me,” was the response of Jesus. However, the man was unable to follow Jesus “for he had many possessions.”

How often in our own lives do we allow material possessions to get in the way of our relationship with Christ? How often are we afraid to take another step to deepen our discipleship? Many times, we may feel that all is good: we follow the rules and live a good life. Yet Jesus invites us to much more. He calls us to be missionary disciples, to give of ourselves for others, to bring the Good News of God’s love to those around us. Jesus invites us to be people on the move, to not be content with doing the minimum.

Of course this is challenging for everyone. We may be afraid of what our life would look like if we surrendered everything to Christ. A few weeks ago, I attended a Renew My Church conference. Towards the end, we were invited to pray that the Holy Spirit come into our lives and hearts. And we were a little fearful. When the Holy Spirit comes, our lives can be turned upside-down and a new life takes root. Yet we are invited to trust in the Lord, that what we will become is greater than we can imagine. Let us pray for this transformation of our hearts and minds, so that we may be generous with all that we are.

As I spoke last week at the masses, I told you how we were in the midst of a financial crisis at the parish. We have a $30,000 loan to repay to the Vincentians for operating costs, and approximately $30,000 of unforeseen repairs that we need to do to the church before winter. And that is only the extraordinary expenses we need to pay. As I said, and as my letter to parishioners stated, I ask all of you to prayerfully consider increasing what you already give, or to begin to give. While I am not asking you to give everything that you have as Jesus did in the Gospel, we all need to help support our mission of service, love and justice.

You can set up your contribution from your credit or debit card at www.stvdep.org/donate.

In addition, you can donate by using Zelle from your banking app. Enter the email address of donate@stvdep.org to contribute to the parish.

May God bless you for your generous hearts and willingness to participate in the Vincentian mission to bring God’s love to our community and world.

Invitation to Ordination

I am Bemnet Melaku C.M. Some call me Ben. I was born and grew up in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. I lived in the Netherlands for a couple of years, and for 15 years in Texas. At the age of 13, I joined the Capuchin Franciscans Order and continued with them for 10 years while studying for my first Bachelor of Art (BA) degree in Philosophy and 2 years of Theology. Once I moved to the US, I graduated with Associate of Science (AS) degree from Dallas Community College, Bachelor of Art (BA) in Psychology/Biology from University of Texas at Arlington, and a Master of Science (MS) in Healthcare Administration from UTA. Throughout these many years of studies, I worked many different jobs and was involved in variety of Church ministries. Prior to moving to Chicago, I worked for Catholic Charities of Fort Worth Texas for about 5 years as a Case Manager and Program Manager. I was a member of Knights of Columbus and involved in the University Campus ministry of UTA. I moved to Chicago 3 years ago and joined the Vincentians Community. In May 2018, I graduated from Catholic Theological Union with a Master of Divinity (M.Div.) and continued to study Clinical Psychology at DePaul University. I did my final vows in June. Right now, I am a full-time Doctor of Ministry (DMin) student at CTU with a concentration in Liturgy. I am also working as a DRE (Director of Religious Education) at St. Gabriel Parish in South Chicago while preparing myself for my transitional diaconate ordination on Saturday October 20 at 10am at St. Vincent de Paul Parish. I invite all of you to join me to celebrate the ordination mass and at the lunch reception after. All has been done only by the grace of God. Let His will be done. As I continue to say yes to God’s calling in church ministry as a Vincentian priest, I want you all to know that your prayers mean everything to me and I thank you very much for all your continued support and prayers.

ON MARATHON CRAZY AND MARATHON GRIT

Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

Not long after running the 2017 Chicago Marathon, I went out for a fast seven miles with a young guy from work. It was terrific! Until it wasn’t. I struggled with the resultant hip/leg pain for months. Saw doctors. Had x-rays. Did exercises. No help. At least not in the short term. Heck. Early in the year, I couldn’t run fifty yards, so when the 2018 Chicago Marathon registration window opened, the thought of running it again wasn’t on my mind. Still, the pain subsided by Shamrock Shuffle time, so I signed up for a marathon training program in June, and when I logged some pain-free, late-summer long runs, I started looking for a fall race to run. Actually, I asked my wife to find me one.

She had just started looking when everything fell into place. A work assignment came to me out of the blue that put me in Manchester, NH Monday and Tuesday two weeks ago. Gail found a marathon the following Sunday in the nearby Keene, NH area. Excellent! I did my work on Monday and Tuesday in Manchester. Gail flew to Boston the next day, rented a car, and drove over to meet me. We kicked around New England for a few days, and even got to see some family and friends in the area for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. As Gail had predicted via an email to me at work before we both headed east separately, we had a great time. Well. Until those last few miles...

Overall, though, the Clarence Demar Marathon was amazing. The weather was perfect for starters, and perfect weather goes a long way come marathon day. Also, I don’t mean to gush, but the scenery was spectacular. Fall colors everywhere. I actually laughed out loud at maybe Mile 11 or Mile 12 when I saw a sign that read, “Runners – Awesome Views Ahead!” Huh? I’d been seeing awesome views since the horn went off! Elevation-wise, the race was downhill overall, but deceptively so, for with some of the downhills came some wicked climbs. Because of this, I was losing steam covering the past few miles, but I saw a sign at Mile 22 that buoyed me as much as any sign I’ve seen in my (now) 26 marathons: “Crazy got you here. Grit will bring you home.”

I really like this. So much so that I shared it with several friends running Chicago last Sunday. And I think about it now as I consider today’s Gospel, the story of the man who asks Jesus how to gain eternal life. Jesus tells him to follow the commandments. When the man says he’s observed them from his youth, Jesus tells him to also sell his belongings, give to the poor, and follow him. This is too much to ask, though, for the man goes away sad. When the disciples later wonder then who can be saved, Jesus says “For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God.” We all know that nobody earns their way into heaven. All we can do is the best we can, embracing the Jesus message along the way. But this is hard. Especially in a secular world where discipleship is often not only not valued, but ridiculed. Or worse. The Jesus message is what we signed up for, though. We signed up to follow a guy who died, rose, and gave us his flesh and blood as food and drink. Yeah. Crazy totally got us here, but grit—and grace—will get us home.
We are here on a mission to save and rescue the Catholics in the Holy Land.

For centuries, Bethlehem’s Catholics have supported their families by carving olive-wood religious items for visiting pilgrims. Many pilgrims have stopped visiting the Holy Land, because of the conflict and continued persecution by ISIS who is already at the door, and other radical groups. This meant there was no source of income for the Catholic families, who depended mainly on the tourism industry. Therefore, many were forced to leave their homeland and go somewhere else were they could afford to feed their children and have a more secure life.

Catholics now make up less than 1% of the population. This simply means in a few years there could be no Catholics left in the Holy Land, for the very first time in history. This also means that there would not be anybody left to protect our holy sites, our faith, and heritage, which we have protected for more than 2000 years. Promoting olive-wood carvings in the United States has become the main source of income for about 600 Catholic families. Hopefully this will eliminate the massive immigration of Catholics from the Holy Land. This gives them the opportunity to live and work with dignity in the ongoing conflict.

With this in mind, I would love to invite every one of you to come and take a look at our beautiful artwork display. And if you like anything, please consider buying it, because the people who chose to stay in the Holy Land to protect our holy sites, deserve our help and support.

We bring to you the olive-wood art as a sign of peace. Catholics in the Holy land are the very first line of defense of the Christian world against terrorists, which has no limits as we have seen.

Your support is greatly needed and sincerely appreciated. Our carvings make beautiful gifts for all occasions; include your church, and a loved one. So please, if every family here purchased just one item, no matter how small or how much it is, you would not only get something special, unique, and hand carved from the Holy land, but you would also help make a huge difference in the history of Catholics in the Holy Land. We accept cash, checks, and all credit and debit cards; but please, we do not accept any donations. Please take five extra minutes of your time and consideration, to stop by our display, it can truly mean a huge difference between a Catholic family leaving or staying in the Holy Land.

Father thank you so much for your time, consideration, and generous hospitality; May the Lord Jesus Bless you and give you the strength and wisdom to continue being a great shepherd for his people and his Church, Peace on earth; May God Bless you all, and God Bless America.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.
