From the Pastor

The story of Bartimaeus and Jesus that we hear in today’s Gospel always strikes me deeply. Each time I hear it, I can picture the scene in my mind. Jesus and the crowds on their way to Jerusalem. Bartimaeus begging by the side of the road, calling to Jesus. The people telling him to be quiet. Jesus calling to him and Bartimaeus leaping up to greet him. The healing and joy that followed.

The theme that stood out for me this time as I read this Gospel is persistence. Bartimaeus did not stop calling out to Jesus even though those around him yelled at him. He continued to press his case until Jesus recognized him and called him by name. Bartimaeus was on a mission and refused to stop until he was heard.

We are invited to the same persistence in our prayer life. Many times, it feels as if no one is listening to our prayers, that all of our petitions go unheard. Sometimes, the opposite of what we pray for happens and it leads to doubt and fear. Yet if we can have just a small amount of faith that Jesus does hear us and wants to respond to us, we will be heard. Persistence in prayer is a challenge when it seems to do nothing, yet the same persistence that Bartimaeus had in calling upon Jesus is what we are called to as well.

And when we come before the Lord in our personal prayer, Jesus asks us the same question that he asked Bartimaeus, “What do you want me to do for you?” At first, it seems like an odd question since it is pretty obvious what the blind man wants. Perhaps it is an obvious answer in your life. Yet Jesus invites us to name our deep desires and hopes so that he may act in our lives. What do you need most in your life right now? If you were sitting down with Jesus today, what would you ask for?
As members of a large parish, it can be daunting to become familiar with each other. To help remedy this, there will be a Name Tag Sunday once a month, beginning the weekend of November 3-4. When you come to Mass that weekend, please write your name on a name tag that will be available at each door and wear it during Mass. Then as we greet each other at the beginning, and during the Sign of Peace, greet those around you by name. Help us get to know each other and take this step towards building our community.

Mass Volunteers Needed!
Have you considered serving as a lector, Eucharistic Minister, greeter, usher, or musician? The Worship Commission invites you to join our growing group of lay ministers. Serving as a minister only requires a short training session, and you can select roles that fit your interests and your schedule. If you’re interested contact Jenna Garcia at jvernon640@gmail.com.

Forgiving Offenses Willingly
On the Ground in Eastern Africa: Creating Peace Amid Conflict & Religious Extremism

Eastern Africa is increasingly plagued by religious ideological extremism, which generates a hostile cultural environment that suffocates tolerance, freedom, mercy, and reconciliation. To create and implement conflict management and peacemaking policies, it’s critical to have a comprehensive knowledge of the continuum of conflict/peace, tolerance/intolerance, and more. Fr. Patrick Devine explores these topics, drawing on the work of the Shalom Centre for Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation (SCCRR), which he founded in Eastern Africa.

He holds a PhD in political science and public administration (University of Nairobi). He received the 2013 International Caring Award, succeeding the Dalai Lama, and was recently nominated for the Tipperary International Peace Award.

News & Notes

My name is Kenneth Hessemer. I am currently enrolled in my 2nd year of studies as a Master of Divinity student at Catholic Theological Union in Hyde Park. This academic year St. Vincent DePaul parish will be the site of my ministry practicum; an integral part of my degree program that is comprised of both hands-on ministry and theological reflection. The ministries that I will be serving in at St. Vincent de Paul include the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and the Elizabeth Ann Seton Food Pantry and Sandwich Kitchen.

Born and raised in New Jersey, I hold a BA in Sociology from New Jersey City University in Jersey City. It wasn’t until I went on a mission trip to Kolkata, India in 2016 that I was able discern that God was calling me to a deeper life of service in the Church. In Kolkata I worked alongside Mother Teresa’s Missionaries of Charity sisters in their home for the dying. This experience continues to play as much of a transformative role in my spiritual and ministerial identity as it did then. It’s a constant reminder of God’s tender love and mercy; most especially to the most vulnerable in society.

In my free time I enjoy being outdoors; walking, running, or cycling. I am also an avid cook and enjoy preparing meals and gathering around the table with my family and friends. It is a great privilege to be a part of this parish community, and I look forward to getting to know and serve with many of you in the next year.

SETON SOUP KITCHEN

Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of packaged cookies and donuts.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.
ON NEW SEATING ASSIGNMENTS, AND SEEING

Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

So a new guy started at my workplace a few days ago. My new boss, actually. I was on the interview team, so I’d met him before. Along with four or five others, I interviewed the candidate one-on-one, then each of the team members was asked to go to a third party portal online somewhere to put our comments down about the person. We used to share such feedback as a group around the table. I preferred this to the portal, because then I could hear everyone’s take and share my own as we came to a consensus regarding the proposed new person. Now I just put my comments into the portal and that’s that. I had issues with several of the previous candidates, and apparently others did, too, because none of them were extended an offer. I entered several positive comments about this new guy, though, and others must have as well, because like I said, he started the other day. And right after I learned he’d accepted the offer a few weeks prior, I learned that I had to move my desk...

Yeah. Because of who reports to who now that we’ve finally hired a Director of QA, senior management deemed it best to mix up the seating to keep the teammates of each team in closer proximity to one another. In truth, I’ll be shifting only four feet or so to the left, but building maintenance has to first restructure the cubicle walls to put me on the opposite side of the wall where I am now. I have no problem with the move, but as it was announced to me and to the other managers, I just couldn’t picture it, you know? Even after one of my colleagues drew a schematic of the new desk alignments on the erasable wall. I was studying the schematic intently when another colleague—obviously concerned for me—said, “John, are you OK with this?” I said “Yes,” but added that I still couldn’t see it. I felt like the only visually-challenged person in the room, because I was. “Look,” I said, “I can write you a sonnet in ten minutes, but visualizing in open space is not one of my skill sets.”

Yet not so, perhaps, Bartimaeus, the blind man in today’s Gospel. Blind, at least, at the beginning of the passage. He is sitting on the side of the road in Jericho, and when he hears that Jesus is passing by, he calls out, “Jesus, son of David, have pity on me.” Many tell him to be quiet but he calls out all the more, “Son of David, have pity on me.” Jesus stops and tells his disciples to call the blind man. They do, so Bartimaeus throws aside his cloak and goes to Jesus. “What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asks. “Master, I want to see,” he says, prompting Jesus to say in return, “Go your way; your faith has saved you.” Immediately he gains his sight, but here’s the funny thing, he doesn’t go his way. Instead, he follows Jesus. Which was perhaps his intention all along as he called out to the man of God passing by. Per an interesting quote often attributed to Jonathon Swift “Vision is the art of seeing what is invisible to others.” I like that. It didn’t help me in trying to visualize my new desk location. In fact, I was on the other end of that stick. But Bartimaeus had vision in spades. He couldn’t physically see, true, but he had eyes of faith and look where this took him. We should all be so blind. And so visionary.
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today is the feast of the Forty Martyrs of England and Wales, the first representative body of many Catholics who died for their faith between 1535 and 1679 to be beatified or canonized. Almost all of them died at Tyburn, a place of public execution near today’s Marble Arch in Hyde Park, London. The first to suffer were Carthusian monks who refused to swear an oath supporting Henry VIII as supreme head of the Church in England, and the last was Saint Oliver Plunkett, the Primate Archbishop of Ireland. The method of execution was particularly vile, since the condemned were hanged and their living bodies quartered to be displayed around London as a horrific warning.

Today, the tree-like gallows provides the design of a religious symbol, the canopy over the altar of the martyrs in Tyburn Convent. There, at the heart of the bustling city, a monastic community of women practices contemplative prayer and "spiritual hospitality" in the Benedictine tradition. Oddly, the community is French in origin; it was expelled from France a century ago when France outlawed contemplative monastic life. England, where the laws against Catholicism had been lifted, invited the community in. In gratitude to their new homeland, and in honor of those who gave their lives for the Catholic faith, the nuns came to Tyburn. In the public crypt, coats of arms stand for each of the 350 martyrs. A Web site visit is possible at www.tyburnconvent.org.uk.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
