Sunday Scripture Reflection

Molly has been a parishioner of St. Vincent de Paul for ten years, and lives in Logan Square with her husband and daughter (who you can often find at 5pm mass, openly adoring every note sung by the choir).

The readings and the gospel this week present three family scenes that struck me first as being quite different: A narrative of a mother whose dedication to her son is expressed through giving him to God; a description of ideal communities in the early Christian Church; and a vignette of a not-yet-teenager engaging in his ministry with such single mindedness that he lost his parents.

For me, the gospel highlights the humanity of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. They lived as a family, traveled as a family, and celebrated feasts as a family. When coupled with Paul’s text, “Put on heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, and over all these put on love, that is the bond of perfection,” the readings of this Feast bring to my mind the centrality of love in Catholicism.

This idea is found all over scripture, but to me the most poignant expression of it is in the first letter to John, which says simply that “God is love.” I’m often struck by the concrete nature of this. God can be represented as a man with a beard on the Sistine Chapel, but also as an action: The act of love, the act of giving our self to someone else, is experiencing God.

I have always found the central nature of love in our religion to be incredibly powerful. From a self-centered perspective, it describes God’s relationship with me. No matter how flawed I am, I am worthy of love, and, indeed, constantly loved. However, I find it to be even more powerful in what it says about my relationship to others. Before I had any introduction to Catholicism, I knew that it felt good when I loved. When I began to learn about God in the Catholic faith, this feeling was given a more formal description: when I recognize the image and likeness of God in another person, when I love them in all their complexity, I feel closest to God.

In the context of this message, the wide range of families that are highlighted by the readings, I believe, can serve to reinforce the idea that this love can take on many forms and still be aligned to God. This week’s readings also highlight that this love that guides us to God is not some unattainable emotion. It is the same love that we experience within our own families and within our community. God is not found through some hidden knowledge, but in the approachable (if complicated) act of love.
Vincentian Stewardship

Planned Giving

Your ability to arrange a planned gift may be more significant than you first think. Many people of modest means make important gifts to charities of all kinds every day. Most people think of leaving a certain amount of money to their favorite charity by including the gift in their Will. However, giving cash or other assets is just one way to make a bequest.

Year-End Giving: Corporate Match

How can you make your year-end gift at Christmastime to St. Vincent double in value? Check with your company to see if they offer a charitable matching gift program.

Employee Matching Gifts are donations an employer makes to match its employees' charitable contributions. Employee matching gifts often are dollar-for-dollar, but some companies will give double or even triple the original donation. Guidelines and amounts vary with each company. Typically, individuals must submit forms to their employers. Check with your Human Resources Department for more information on matching gift donations at your company.
The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of dish soap or hand soap.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

As members of a large parish, it can be daunting to become familiar with each other. To help remedy this, there will be a Name Tag Sunday on January 5-6, and again on the first Sunday of every month. When you come to Mass that weekend, please write your name on a name tag that will be available at each door and wear it during Mass. Then as we greet each other at the beginning, and during the Sign of Peace, greet those around you by name. Help us get to know each other and take this step towards building our community.

THE DEPAUL HUMANITIES CENTER IN PARTNERSHIP WITH ST. VINCENT DE PAUL PARISH PRESENTS

THE BIBLICAL HUMANITIES

"WHY DO YOU STAND OUTSIDE?": HOSPITALITY AND THE STRANGER

Wednesday, January 16, 2019 • St. Vincent DePaul Parish • 1010 West Webster Avenue, Chicago
7:00 - 9:00 p.m. • Lectures and Performances • 9:00 - 9:30 p.m. • Wine and Cheese Reception

Sponsored by St. Vincent de Paul Parish

With a series of lectures and live musical performances by the parish chorale, the DIIIC investigates what it means to welcome the stranger. From an analysis of the ambivalent role played by three biblical strangers who also happen to be the only three women mentioned in the genealogy of Christ, to providing “deep access” to those in our community who are differently abled, to pondering the ways in which the portrait in the history of art might offer an access to empathy, we will think together about the religious, philosophical, artistic, and ethical-political conceptions of strangers, refugees, foreigners, immigrants, and neighbors—and what it means to offer sincere hospitality.

WITH

ROBERT BEATTY AND THE SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL CHAMBER CHORALE

CHRISTINA M. GOSCHWANDTNER, PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY, FORDHAM UNIVERSITY

AMY M. MOOREY, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF ART HISTORY, COLUMBIA COLLEGE, CHICAGO

THOMAS E. REYNOLDS, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF THEOLOGY, EMANUEL COLLEGE, UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

ON HAPPY NEW YEAR GREETINGS (WHENEVER), AND RESOLUTIONS

Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

When I attended Mass back on the 1st Sunday of Advent at my home parish, our priest opened his homily by wishing all of us a Happy New Year. He followed the greeting by suggesting that perhaps the younger attendees might be thinking to themselves that the priest was about a month early in his New Year recognition. Fr. Paul quickly noted further, though, that Advent is the beginning of the new Church year, hence his greeting. He reminded us of the scriptural journey we’ve all been on since this time last year—from the Annunciation to Christ’s birth to the Presentation to his public ministry to Calvary and beyond—and that now essentially, here we go again.

Now four weeks later, we’re on the cusp of 2019, and Fr. Paul’s (secular) Happy New Year greeting will be in full swing before we know it. This is the time of year that people make resolutions. Perhaps some of you already have a few in mind. Weight loss is always high on the national list, which is why we often see sales right around now on exercise equipment. Getting organized is usually up there, too. Me? Nothing’s cast in stone yet, but I’m a fan of resolutions. I subscribe to the new slate concept, the notion that regardless of how well we did—or frankly, how poorly—in 2018, 2019 is now put before us like a brand new canvas, and we hold the brush.

We don’t have to look far to find inspiring thoughts heading into the new year. Consider Lao Tzu’s “A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.” Consider even Mel Gibson’s “It’s a wise man who understands that every day is a new beginning, because boy, how many mistakes do you make in a day? I don’t know about you, but I make plenty. You can’t turn the clock back, so you have to look ahead.” I’ve heard “to be a better person” from friends over the years when I’ve asked the resolution question. I’ve used it once or twice myself, in fact. It’s good, but it’s kind of vague, and as an old boss told me over and over years ago, “You must be specific to be terrific.”

Enter the Apostle Paul in the second reading: “Put on, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another…” This sounds pretty specific to me. It’s not easy putting on Christ, but it sounds to me that this is exactly what Mary and Joseph do (ironically), when they find the missing boy Jesus in the temple with the teachers of the faith, listening to them and asking questions. Mary offers a gentle chiding (“Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety”) but not understanding his answer (“...Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?”), she keeps such things in her heart. Paul continues, “...whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” I hear a word at work bouncing around a lot lately as we grow into new systems and processes while recognizing the challenges inherent in such growth. “Aspirational.” I think it plays for all of us now as we put on Love in 2019. Happy New Year.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.
