Ben Gartland started attending St. Vincent de Paul as a DePaul University freshman in 2013 and has been active ever since, first as the student Liturgy Coordinator and now with the parish worship commission. He is also a co-leader with the TnT young adults, sings in the Sunday 5 p.m. choir, and is involved with SPRED. He lives in Ravenswood and works as a communications specialist for the Midwest Jesuits.

One of my least favorite things about college was when the professor would announce at the start of the class that we would have a group project, and that we would be graded as a group. As someone who is very-task oriented and likes to get projects out of the way by myself, relying on someone else to come through with their portion of the project or having to work around several people’s schedules was incredibly frustrating for me. What if someone didn’t pull their weight and I got a lower grade because of it? What if I didn’t do a good job and caused someone else to lose points? This always struck me as unfair and unnecessary.

The second reading today says “As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.” This throws cold water on my individualistic type of thinking. It is much easier for me to simply think about myself and my own journey through life: my own career goals, my own social life, my own faith. Sure, it’s hard work to concentrate on those goals, but it’s much easier than walking on that path with others.

But that’s not what we are called to do. Much like a college group project, we often do not choose who were are put on this Earth with. Some may turn out to be great partners whose work ethic and ideas align with ours. Some may be irritating or even be a hindrance to our final goals. Regardless, today’s reading is the instruction that we will be graded upon how we take our circumstances and walk with those we have been placed with in our small parish communities and classes, in our cities, and in our world. When we, as individual parts of the Body of Christ, are able to work together efficiently and in unison, we are able to achieve what God set us on this Earth to do. We all have to figure out and perform our individual roles and occasionally step up to cover when necessary, as well as step back and let others do the work when needed.

“You are Christ's body, and individually parts of it.” This week, let’s reflect on how we may use our individual God-given gifts to work together with our neighbors in the fulfillment of His plan.

Pro Life Awareness Baby Bottle Drive

The donations raised from this project go directly to The Women’s Center of Chicago. The money we collect will help mothers who are facing a crisis pregnancy and who have little or no support for their unborn babies.

The Women’s Center provides financial, material and spiritual assistance to the women – items such as car seats, strollers, diapers, formula, blankets, clothing, maternity clothing, toys, cribs, etc. and they are all free to the mother and family. The Women’s Center also offers post-abortive counseling to women seeking healing after their abortions and this is offered free of charge as well.

Please put your spare change in the baby bottle during the next few weeks. Please bring the baby bottles back to Church no later than Sunday, February 10.

When you bring the baby bottle back to church, you can place them on the steps of the altar or bring to the parish office.

Please give whatever you can to help us help those women and young girls to choose life for their babies and please pray for an end to abortion in our country. Thank you!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Saturdays feast of the Presentation is a day for the blessing of candles. Why does liturgy require candles? In the first years of the church, worship was often at night, and candles and torches were carried from place to place within the worship space as needed. Candles were also a mark of festivity and hospitality when people gathered for prayer in homes, and later on in large buildings with thick walls and dark corners. But even after gaslight and electricity, candles were kept.

Part of the reason has to do with the warm, clean light of a candles flame. Candles are a good sign of the partnership of God and creation: wax made by bees, gathered and fashioned by human hands into something beautiful and useful. In order for the light to shine, the candle surrenders itself, almost as if it is pouring itself out so that the light can flood into the world. The candle of baptism, placed into our hands, and carried again and again, speaks silently of that same wisdom. If you would save your life, you must lose it. You must pour your life out like Christ so that you may be filled with the light of his love.

The Brother Leo Vincentian Outreach Center at St. Vincent de Paul Parish is partnering with Catholic Charities Legal Assistance and the DePaul College of Law Neighborhood Legal Assistance Project (NALP) to support guests of our soup kitchen on Saturday mornings starting this spring.

This program’s mission is to provide support for guests with finding appropriate legal resources in the city and to expand the impact of support and assistance provided by NLAP and Catholic Charities.

Attorneys will work with trained NALP law student volunteers to assist homeless soup kitchen guests with obtaining state identification cards and with the sealing and expungement process. Staff from Catholic Charities Legal Assistance will also be present to help with the program.

Attorney volunteers will not be asked to provide legal representation to guests or to provide services beyond the time spent volunteering on Saturdays.

Attendance at two training seminars offered by Catholic Charities Legal Assistance, on two Saturdays in February, is required for attorney volunteers.

Training will take place at St. Vincent De Paul Parish, 1010 W. Webster, between 9 a.m. and 12 p.m., and sessions will be eligible for CLE credit.

ON SEEKING MONUMENTS, AND REALIZING PROPHECIES
Copyright 2018 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

It's hard for me to believe this (and sometimes I don't want to believe it) but I graduated college over forty years ago now. I remember my mom telling me then that the years I spent downstate at the University of Illinois were--and would prove to always be--the best years of my life. In truth, I've had several best years of my life, both before and after my Champaign days, but I knew what she was trying to tell me. I did have great fun at school, though, starting with New Student Week before classes even began. And one of the fun things I did was to seek out the burial site of the University's first president, John Milton Gregory. Yeah. Somebody tipped me off to it and I thought it'd be cool to investigate. Milton's grave is tucked away just south of Altgeld Hall as I now recall, and it's memorialized by a small marker that carries the words, “If you seek his monument, look about you.”

Nice. This comes to mind today as I consider today's Gospel. It's one of my favorites, actually. And for two reasons. First, I enjoy the evangelist Luke’s long opening sentence (who does he think he is... St. Paul?). But more cogent to the conversation, I like today’s passage because of what Jesus says at the end of it. Upon returning to Nazareth--his hometown--Jesus goes to the synagogue on the Sabbath. He is handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah to read. He unrolls it and recites this passage: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of the sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.” Then Jesus hands the scroll back to the attendant, and I can just picture the religious elite sitting there with bated breath, waiting for the next words out of Jesus’ mouth. I’m sure no one expected this: “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

Like Gregory’s epitaph, Christ's words are larger than the words alone. In both instances they point to a global reality driven by the man referencing them—or referenced by them—and in both instances, the reality is noteworthy. But a certain difference is noteworthy as well. Gregory’s memorial points to Gregory, while Christ’s words don’t point to Jesus at all. I mean, he doesn’t say, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in me,” you know? I think he’s saying that it is fulfilled in all of us who claim discipleship. And what does this mean? Somewhere in the Gospels, a woman calls out to Jesus and suggests that his mother is blessed for carrying and nurturing him. Jesus answers that the truly blessed are those who hear and observe the word of God. Wait. We have to hear it, and live it? As I’ve noted before, hearing it is easy enough. Living it is tough. On our best days, though, we stand with the Christ—or perhaps we stand as the Christ—in proclaiming liberty to captives, recovery of the sight to the blind, freedom to the oppressed. This is the legacy we’re all called to. This is what we’re all about. Or should be. So, how about this as a memorial: “If you seek his/her monument, look to the Kingdom”? Not a bad epitaph for any of us.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
