Sunday Scripture Reflection

In 1986, minister Robert Fulghum wrote a book entitled “All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten” which became a hit. In it, he cited simple actions that we learned when we were little and called us as adults to follow the same principles. Share everything. Play fair. Say you’re sorry when you hurt somebody. If we followed these simple principles and rules, we and our world would be a much better place.

St. Paul has a similar lesson to teach us in the second reading today. Writing to the Galatians nearly 2,000 years ago, he said, “The whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.”

Love your neighbor as yourself. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. This is what Jesus commanded us, following in the footsteps and teachings of Jewish tradition. The same holds true today just as it did 2,000 years ago. We desperately need this in our society and world.

What St. Paul also reminds us is that division and hatred tear us down and will consume us. It is very easy to see how we may bite and devour one another through our actions, our words, or our Facebook posts. I’m afraid that the division and hatred will only intensify as our country and church are so divided into different factions.

What is our response to division and hatred, to “devouring one another?” The only answer that I see is as simple as one of those kindergarten lessons: Love one another. In today’s Gospel, when Jesus was not welcomed by a town, his disciples wanted to destroy the town in a divine scorched-earth policy idea. The response of Jesus: rebuke his disciples and move on. Jesus was not about hatred or prejudice. Jesus was not about mocking his opponents. Jesus was not about hurting or destroying people. We are called today to follow his example, to remember the lesson we learned so long ago: Love one another.

Who’s In The Pews?

Name: Alex and Mike Hannau

How long have you been attending Mass at St. Vincent de Paul?
We have been attending Saint Vincent’s for the past two years.

Where did you grow up?
Alex - Arlington, Virginia and Bogota, Colombia
Mike - Miami Beach, Florida

Where did you go to school?
Alex - Ce-Art in Bogota, Colombia and finished studies in Marketing in Spain
Mike - Loyola University, New Orleans

What do you do professionally (or what types of volunteer or other activities do you participate in)?
Alex - I used to work with children in the Autism spectrum, but am now a preschool teacher in Lincoln Park.
Mike – I am a video production engineer at Resolution Studios.

What do you like most about St. Vincent de Paul parish?
We love the beauty of the church - the music and the people. We enjoy participating in hospitality and various community events. There is something for everyone to take part in, and we feel so lucky to have found the right parish. We used to live in Connecticut and after living there for so many years we never found the welcoming and warmth that Saint Vincent’s has given us.
SETON SOUP KITCHEN
Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of sugar and creamer.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

RADICAL TRANSFORMATION

On this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings describe anything but an ordinary time. They are disturbing and they leave us disturbed. The Old Testament reading recounts a young man’s radical break with the past to follow a new path. The Gospel describes how life as we know it is abruptly changed if we follow the call of Christ. The psalm and Paul assure us that such life-altering change is possible only because of the power of God's love. We are presented with a stark choice. To love as God loves, we must leave our old lives behind. We must leave behind not just the bad, the selfish, and the evil but the ordinary, our daily work, and the important, our families, our lives. Loving as God loves requires a radical transformation, not a smooth transition.

We welcome into the church this weekend:

Christopher Samuel, child of Samuel and Samantha Tsamoulos
Mark Sampson, child of Mark and Jessica Sampson
Rose Magdalena, child of Diego Cuevas and Emylee Shultz
ON HOME, AND WALKING AWAY FROM IT

Copyright 2019 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

Per Thornton Wilder, “Everybody is always talking about people breaking into houses, ma’am, but there are more people in the world who want to break out of houses.” Well, yeah. That’s one way of looking at it. But there are other perspectives from other great minds who’ve come and gone before us. Consider Brewster Higley (and sing along if you’re inclined): “Home, home on the range/ Where the deer and the antelope play/ Where seldom is heard a discouraging word/ And the skies are not cloudy all day.” Consider Frost, “Home is the place where, when you have to go there, they have to take you in.” And of course, consider per Pliny the Elder, “Home is where the heart is.”

And speaking of home, my wife and I got together with some out-of-town friends recently. Doug and his wife Marie were in from the west coast for the Chicago Blues Festival and deep dish pizza. You gotta love these guys! We had them over for dinner one night, and as they were leaving, they noticed the chalked message on the lintel above our front door: 20 K + M + B 19.” They asked about it. I told them that it was new to us, too, until we learned at our home parish about chalking the initials of the three kings along with the calendar year each Epiphany Sunday, and saying a prayer of blessing over the house and all who enter it. Doug and Marie liked it. Gail and I like it, too.

I read somewhere once...or heard somewhere once...or dreamed somewhere once...that the end game of all human activity is happiness at home. I’m sure I’ve mangled the quote, but I’m just as sure that the gist of it is accurate. And I find the gist of it—that happiness at home is the reason behind everything we do and everything we’ve done since the beginning—to be very powerful. For if the written word...or the spoken word...or the dream is true, then everything we contemplate and do has the promise—or at least the prospect—of domestic bliss at its core. Heck. One could argue that this is why Adam and Eve gave in to the apple. Or whatever that fruit was long ago...

I dwell on the goodness—the sacredness, even—of home because the goodness/sacredness seems to leave us today. Or more correctly, we leave it (or are called to leave it). Not as Wilder suggests, though. First Elisha wants to kiss his folks goodbye when he gets God’s call via Elijah (and Elijah even gives him an out, saying “Go back! Have I done anything to you?”), but Elisha embraces his prophetic call, leaving all he knows and loves behind. Then Jesus bids three would-be disciples to follow him. We don’t know their decisions, but we know that one of the three wants to bury his parents first, and another wants to say goodbye to family. “Reasonable,” I’d say. “Reasonable,” perhaps all of us would say. But as our Seasonal Missalette put it, “...the point is not the appropriateness of their delays. The point is that following Jesus requires a total commitment.” And Jesus himself is no stranger to walking away from all that is dear to him. "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." He gets it. Do we? Do I?

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
