Sunday Scripture Reflection

Our Sunday Gospel readings from the past few weeks have been laser-focused on the call of discipleship. Last week, Jesus began his journey to Jerusalem and the cross and told his followers that they had to put aside all other commitments in order to follow him. In sum, these readings are difficult for many of us who want to follow Jesus, but have difficulty letting go of what holds us back from a deeper relationship with God.

Today, Jesus again instructs the disciples as he sends them out. Take no money, no clothes nor sandals for the journey. Once more, Jesus calls the disciples to have a laser focus on proclaiming the Kingdom of God. Nothing is to deter them from reaching their destination. At the same time, they are to trust that God would provide for them in the towns to which they journeyed.

When they return, the disciples are filled with joy, because they were able to heal and minister as Jesus had. Whatever difficulties they encountered were outweighed by the advancement of the mission. Jesus commends them and says that “your names are written in heaven.”

And what does this mean for us today? We too are called to proclaim the goodness of the Kingdom of God in our own day and time. Through our lives, our words and our actions, we must bear witness to God’s saving love and power. We too are invited to let go of what holds us back and trust in the providence of God to guide and lead us. If we are able to let go, then we are filled with more blessings. God is never outdone in generosity.

One of the constant messages of Pope Francis has been that all of us are missionary disciples. All of us are called to live our lives in a manner which others will find attractive and draw closer to Christ. Being a missionary disciple does not necessarily mean we have to leave behind everything and go to a foreign land; it means being open to where God is directing you here and today, inviting others to join you in recognizing the healing and fulfillment that comes from a deeper relationship with Christ. Being a missionary disciple is what we envision happening because of Renew My Church. If we ourselves as a parish are focused on making missionary disciples, we too can have this same joy and renew our parish. The vision as we move forward continues to be on engagement with all who are present now and those we wish to welcome into our church, our hearts and our life of faith and love.

What do you like most about St. Vincent de Paul parish?
We love the beauty of the church - the music and the people. We enjoy participating in hospitality and various community events. There is something for everyone to take part in, and we feel so lucky to have found the right parish. We used to live in Connecticut and after living there for so many years we never found the welcoming and warmth that Saint Vincent’s has given us.

SETON SOUP KITCHEN
Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of sugar and creamer.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

GOD’S PROVIDENCE

Today’s readings celebrate God’s providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does. Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us “as a mother comforts her child.” The prophet describes us not as the usual “children of God”, but as “babies.” We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul’s trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can “make troubles” for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus.

And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

I turned 65 earlier this year, so I graduated high school a long time ago. My 50-year reunion is still a few years out, but Lord willing, I’ll be there. I’ve missed one reunion so far (my 40th, because I had a previous out-of-state commitment) but beyond that, I’ve been around to recall the good old days and to laugh about how none of us—from a physical appearance perspective, anyway—have changed a bit! One of my reunions comes to mind now as I consider the Scripture selections for today, particularly the second reading, from the letter of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

My wife Gail was with me that night (my 20th reunion, maybe?), so she can corroborate the highlights of the conversation. I’ll call my classmate “Joe.” Joe and Gail and I and a few others were hanging around the bar just chatting about this and that and when Joe brought up that his business—something to do with home improvement—was in a slump. He said that work was good—or at least steady—for a long time since school, but that recent developments in the local economy or perhaps his source of raw materials or perhaps insurance issues were making things difficult for him at that particular point in his life. Gail and I are quite certain that what Joe meant to say was “I’m a victim of circumstance.” What he actually said was, “I’m a victim of circumcision.”

Enter Paul. I’ve never really understood the whole circumcision thing in the early church, bracketing it in my mind as just so much periphery. I understand, though, that it was a big deal back then, and if I get the gist of it, Jewish law held that circumcision was required for a right relationship with God. Paul argued in opposition that faith in the Christ trumps adherence to the law. Just as he had made the case earlier to the Galatians (“For in Christ Jesus, neither circumcision or uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love”), so Paul makes the case today: “For neither does circumcision mean anything, nor does uncircumcision, but only a new creation…”

This reminds me in turn of Paul’s point even earlier in Galatians (“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus”) as well as his message to the Corinthians that we heard on Pentecost (“For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons…). But because “the harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few,” Jesus sends the seventy-two out into the world today. He sends them “like lambs among wolves,” I suppose, because his new message of love doesn’t play well with certain people—both then and now—who don’t want the old law (and/or, their power) to pass away. But the reunion Jesus has planned is inclusive. “The kingdom of God is at hand…” he says. For you. For me. For all. In retrospect then, Joe, none of us are victims of circumcision. Or circumstance, for that matter. Instead we are all victors in the Christ.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday Mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Jim Osendorf, CM, by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
