Today’s readings are like a slap in the face. We hear Qoheleth, the author of the Book of Ecclesiastes, in the first reading reflecting on the futility of life: “What profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the sun? All his days sorrow and grief are his occupation; even at night his mind is not at rest.” His pessimistic attitude (some would call it realistic) is reflected as well in the Gospel with the parable of the rich man. After amassing a large harvest, his anxieties and worries go to his material wealth and how to keep it so he can live in luxury. After making his plans, he is told by God that he will die, “and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?” These readings seem to tell us that it’s pointless to work hard, to seek to accomplish things, to try and better our world because in the end, we’re just going to die.

Yet if we reflect deeper on the Gospel message, we can perhaps see the point that Jesus was making. It was not that it’s pointless to work hard or better the world, but that we need to think about our priorities. What is more important to me in my life: having wealth and security or being open to God? Do I judge myself on what I have, on what I make, on what I do? Or do I seek to understand that my self-worth is based upon the simple fact that I am a beloved child of God, not what I accomplish? Nothing that I do or say can change this fact. For me, this is often the most difficult thing to believe about God: that he loves me for who I am, not who I think I should be.

These are difficult questions to ask, and even more difficult to answer honestly. All of us live and work in a culture that judges us more on how productive we are and not on who we are, and it is difficult to swim against the tide. But if we can begin to do that – looking at ourselves based on who we are, not what we do – we can begin to see others in the same way. We can see how it is we respect others and are generous to others. We can let go of attitudes that see others as objects to be used for my own fulfillment. We have become a new creation in Christ, as St. Paul says in the second reading, and are invited to put on the “new self” that comes to us through a relationship with God. If we are able to begin to do so, we can be “rich in what matters to God.”
St. Vincent de Paul Parish gratefully acknowledges our generous sponsors for the 2019 Sheffield Street Festival.

SETON SOUP KITCHEN
Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of paper towels and disinfecting wipes.
Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

Love and Support
St. Vincent de Paul Parish Men's Group

Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Vincent de Paul room in the parish center.
Join the parish men's faith-sharing group for Scripture-based reflection every Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. We'll be discussing the previous Sunday's readings.
No sign-up needed. Email SVDPMensGroup@Gmail.com for any questions

What will be offered?
Children will be put in one of three classes. The first will be a pre-First Communion class. This is for children who have not yet made their First Communion, usually kindergarten and first grade. The Archdiocese of Chicago requires that all children receive two years of religious education before receiving any sacrament. The second class will be a post-First Communion class with children who have received their First Communion. The third class is a First Communion class for students who have completed their pre-First Communion class.

How does it work?
St. Vincent de Paul parish uses the family catechesis model. We believe that parents are the primary teachers of their children, and the church is there to assist and help them. In this format, parents and children meet together for class once per month to discuss themes and topics. Take-home materials are provided to continue the lessons at home. Weekly mass attendance is also a requirement.

When do you meet?
Classes are held once a month after the 10:00 am mass and last until 12:00pm.

Are there other options?
Yes! If you prefer a traditional model of weekly classes, our neighboring parishes offer opportunities on different days of the week (St. Josaphat, St. Clement, St. Alphonsus, St. Michael). St. Teresa offers the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for young children, which is based on the Montessori educational model.

How do I register?
If your family is interested, please contact Rebecca BY August 19th to receive a registration form (rcarmac1@depaul.edu). If your family did not participate in our classes this past year, families must meet with Fr. Jeremy. Due to our space limitations, class sizes will be capped at 10 children.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time August 4, 2019
I was up earlier than usual three Mondays back and was heading out the door for work shortly after 5:00 AM when my cell phone sounded. I thought of the last line of a poem I wrote maybe forty years ago now: “Nothing good befalls early morning calls.” It was Maria asking if my wife Gail and I could get over to her Aunt Manira’s house right away, and telling us that she’d be there soon. Seems Manira had found her husband Greg—Gail’s brother—nonresponsive that morning. She immediately called Maria and 911. Maria immediately called 911, too, then me. When Gail and I arrived ten minutes later, the paramedics were still at work, but they couldn’t bring Greg back. He was 69.

Manira was inconsolable in that dawn madness. A Park Ridge police officer whose name escapes me was the first responder, arriving right after the first 911 call. He went through his revival techniques before the paramedics showed up moments later. The officer told me that they in turn went through their resuscitation protocol multiple times, but to no positive end (the paramedics later told us this directly). Finally, the officer told me that Manira—who I came to learn tried to resuscitate Greg herself before help arrived—had done everything she could, and everything right. It may take years for her to fully understand and appreciate this. Sometimes, I guess, we just don’t wake up.

The officer told me that his team works with religious affiliations offering chaplain services at times such as these. Knowing that Greg and Manira sometimes joined us for Midnight Mass, I asked for a priest. His name escapes me, too, but soon a Polish priest from St. Paul of the Cross showed up. He pulled back the sheet covering Greg’s body, anointed his forehead with oil, and asked God to guide him home. Powerful. Then, just before leaving, he noticed a small Venezuelan flag on the front room mirror. He asked Manira if she was from there. When she said yes, he launched into prayers in Spanish, and Manira responded in turn. When God sends a priest, God sends a priest.

And when God inspires Scripture, God inspires Scripture. From Ecclesiastes, “Here is one who has labored with wisdom and knowledge and skill, and yet to another who has not labored over it, he must leave property.” How topical: Greg was a dentist—an excellent one—for decades. Next, Jesus tells of the man with a plentiful harvest who tears down his barns to build larger ones to better store his grain so he could then eat, drink and be merry for years and years to come. When God demands his life that very night, Jesus says “Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.” I came to learn about a week before Greg’s death that he did not embrace the faith as I thought he did. OK. But if anyone in his or her lifetime was rich in the things that matter to God—love, compassion, friendship, family—Gregory Weathers, DDS was. Yes, sometimes we just don’t wake up. I believe with all my heart, though, that when we fall asleep rich in the things that matter to God, God knows, and God does precisely as the Spanish-speaking Polish priest from St. Paul of the Cross implored on Greg’s behalf on that sad, sad Monday morning. I believe that God does indeed guide us home.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rrcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rrcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rrcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Derek Swanson, C.M., by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
