Sunday Scripture Reflection

Living in Chicago, we know there are certain rules when it comes to our politics. Unfortunate as they are, they are still true.

Rule 1: You may have heard of the man who went to his ward boss to ask to work for him. The boss replied, “We don't want nobody nobody sent.” In Chicago politics, it's not what you know, but who you know that is important.

Rule 2: The first Mayor Daley was confronted one time because he gave city contracts to his son. He said, “If a man can't put his arms around his sons and help them, then what's the world coming to?” Similar to Rule 1, you always look out for your own interests above all else.

Rule 3: If you hold influence, you can get great seats for the Cubs, the Stanley Cup finals or a table at a popular restaurant without a reservation. It's not illegal, it's just a perk of the office.

But in our Gospel today Jesus gives us some rules as well, rules for entering the Reign of God.

Rule 1: Who you know isn't important. Jesus doesn't even care if we say we know about him. None of us here has an “in” with Jesus just because we know about him, or go to church. Jesus is not asking us to know about him, but to really know him, to be in relationship with him through prayer.

Rule 2: It's not about you. The only way for us to enter the Reign of God, the narrow gate, is through our putting into practice the message of Christ. So many times in the Gospel Jesus tells us that what is necessary is love of neighbor and love of God. We have to think about more than just ourselves if we want to enter through the narrow gate. We especially are called to serve those most abandoned and marginalized and those who are treated unjustly. With Christ, there are no limits to who we are called to love.

Rule 3: We’re in for a surprise when we get to heaven. By his life, death and resurrection, Jesus has turned the world upside down. The last will be first and the first will be last. Many will recline at the heavenly banquet that we do not expect, and they will be the ones with the good seats.

Jesus invites us today to reject the rules of the world, and to embrace his rules. Jesus calls us to faith in him, that he can up-end the order and rules of this world and make the last first, and the first last. It’s not easy to give up the ways of the world, but Jesus gives us the grace to do so. He tells us to “strive” to enter, to push ourselves, to always try.

Because to hold on to faith, to persevere when the world tells us to quit is what Jesus means by “striving.” When we strive, we may fail, but we continue striving. And the good news about the gate is that although it may be narrow, it’s not closed. It’s wide open due to the love and sacrifice of Jesus.

SETON SOUP KITCHEN

Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of packaged cookies or pudding cups.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.
WELCOME THE STRANGER

We have become accustomed to seeing pictures in the media and stories on the news about immigrants from Latin America and refugees from Syria fleeing violence and destruction in their own countries, trying to make their way to a safe place. We have also seen the reactions of people who want to keep them away from their countries, who fail to welcome the stranger and the helpless children. Have we forgotten Jesus’ call to comfort the homeless and the stranger? They shall bring all your brothers and sisters from all the nations . . . to Jerusalem, my holy mountain, says the LORD.

In the three readings for this day, we are told that we are to welcome these strangers, to welcome the discipline of the Lord, which leads to peace, and to strive to enter through the narrow gate into the glory of God’s own homeland, the reign of God.

What will be offered?
Children will be put in one of three classes. The first will be a pre-First Communion class. This is for children who have not yet made their First Communion, usually kindergarten and first grade. The Archdiocese of Chicago requires that all children receive two years of religious education before receiving any sacrament. The second class will be a post-First Communion class with children who have received their First Communion. The third class is a First Communion class for students who have completed their pre-First Communion class.

How does it work?
St. Vincent de Paul parish uses the family catechesis model. We believe that parents are the primary teachers of their children, and the church is there to assist and help them. In this format, parents and children meet together for class once per month to discuss themes and topics. Take-home materials are provided to continue the lessons at home. Weekly mass attendance is also a requirement.

When do you meet?
Classes are held once a month after the 10:00 am mass and last until 12:00pm.

Are there other options?
Yes! If you prefer a traditional model of weekly classes, our neighboring parishes offer opportunities on different days of the week (St. Josaphat, St. Clement, St. Alphonsus, St. Michael). St. Teresa offers the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for young children, which is based on the Montessori educational model.

How do I register?
If your family is interested, please contact Rebecca BY September 9th to receive a registration form (rcarmic1@depaul.edu). If your family did not participate in our classes this past year, families must meet with Fr. Jeremy. Due to our space limitations, class sizes will be capped at 10 children.
ON OLD POEMS, THE NARROW GATE, AND GETTING TO KNOW THE CHRIST

Copyright 2019 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

“Heaven’s Surprise.” It’s an old poem, author unknown. I came upon it years ago, and a quick Internet search pulled up this version. You’ve probably heard or read some edition of it, but for old time’s sake—and because it comes to mind today—here you go: “I was shocked, confused, bewildered as I entered Heaven’s door/ Not by the beauty of it all, nor the lights or its décor/ But it was the folks in Heaven who made me sputter and gasp/ The thieves, the liars, the sinners, the alcoholics and the trash/ There stood the kid from seventh grade who swiped my lunch money twice/ Next to him was my old neighbor who never said anything nice/ Herb, who I always thought was rotting away in hell/ Was sitting pretty on cloud nine, looking incredibly well/ I nudged Jesus, ‘What’s the deal? I would love to hear your take/ How’d all these sinners get up here? God must’ve made a mistake/ And why’s everyone so quiet, so somber – give me a clue.’/ ‘Child,’ He said, ‘they’re all in shock. They never thought they’d be seeing you!’”

I’m no theologian, but I’m pretty sure that theologically speaking, the poem has problems. First is the notion that we can earn our way into heaven. That’s not how it goes, as the priests and deacons have been telling us forever. I think it has to do with that whole faith vs. works thing in Romans (“We consider that a person is justified by faith apart from works of the law”) and James (“What good is it...if someone says he has faith but does not have works). I’ll let the real theologians deal with the apparent conflict, but I won’t lose any sleep over it because as I understand things, there is no conflict at all when both passages are taken in their full and entire contexts. And also problematic...what about the judging element going on in “Heaven’s Surprise”? I mean, Jesus himself tells us to that we should not judge others, lest we ourselves be judged, or something like that (I think it’s in the same section where Jesus talks about the splinter in my brother’s eye and the wooden beam in my own).

I’m not being critical. It’s just a poem, after all...not doctrine...nothing to be taken too seriously (and besides, if people started tearing theologically into my writing, I’d be in trouble). I think it wise, though, to spend thoughtful time with the readings. First there’s this passage from Isaiah, “Thus says the Lord... I come to gather nations of every language; they shall come and see my glory.” OK. Heaven’s gate sounds wide open here. But then Jesus comes along in the Gospel, and when someone in the crowd asks if only a few will be saved, he answers, ”Strive to enter through the narrow gate.” Another apparent conflict... Then he adds, “many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough.” I’m not sure what that even means. But next he says something that I totally understand, and that’s really scary... “After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door, then will you stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.' He will say to you in reply, 'I do not know where you are from...’” Despite the clever poem, I get that we cannot earn our way into heaven. We can get to know Jesus better along the way, though, and now’s the time. You know. So that rather than hearing him say someday, “I don’t know where you’re from,” we’ll hear instead, “Oh, hey (insert your name here). I know you! Come on in...”

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rarmac1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rarmac1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rarmac1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Derek Swanson, C.M., by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
