Sunday Scripture Reflection

Sometimes people tell me, “Stop by my house whenever you want.” To me, I can’t imagine just popping in to someone’s house without an invitation for a particular date and time. Part of the social etiquette with which I was raised tells me not to expect to show up unannounced and be welcomed and fed.

Yet, in today’s Gospel, Jesus doesn’t seem to care about our rules of hospitality. He goes to someone he doesn’t know, and invites himself to dinner! What is he trying to show us by his actions? What does Jesus show us about God?

Jesus shows us how willing God is to reach out to all people, especially people who are marginalized, ignored and out of place. Even “the sinners.” And since I am a sinner, it means that God reaches out to me. It means God wants to visit my home.

Jesus shows us that God is willing to reach out to us, even when we are embarrassed or ashamed, even if the mainstream culture doesn’t agree. God is patient with us, infinitely more patient with us that we are with one another. God sees us as friends, as beloved children, ready to invite himself to our home.

Our challenge is to see ourselves as God sees us: worthy of love and mercy; sinners yes, but beautifully made by God. The Book of Wisdom tells us that God “has mercy on all, because you can do all things; and you overlook sins for the sake of repentance. For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made; for what you hated you would not have fashioned.” (11:23-24) When we loathe ourselves and hate ourselves, we are denying God’s presence and love for us.

Many of our problems stem from not being able to see ourselves and others as God sees us. Problems with addiction and self-esteem come in part from not being able to see that, from our thinking that God doesn’t really love me, that I am no good. We understand the concept of God loving all people, yet somehow feel that our sins and failings leave us out of the circle. Jesus invites us today to reject this way of thinking.

Jesus is able to truly see Zacchaeus. He just doesn’t see him as a short man, a sinner or a traitor to his country. He sees him as a child of Abraham, as someone he wants to be friends with. He doesn’t ignore him or marginalize him as others did, but sees him and restores his dignity as a child of God.

This is how God sees us. When we feel most insignificant and small, when we are tempted to believe that God doesn’t want anything to do with us, that God doesn’t love me or care for me, it is then that God looks at us with love, invites himself in and invites us to salvation.

Jesus looks to us and reaches out to offer us hope and salvation. “Come, I must stay at your house!” And others may grumble and mutter, “But he is a sinner! She doesn’t follow all the rules!” Yet Jesus still invites himself in and looks at us with love and mercy. And if we can accept this love, if we can see ourselves as Jesus sees us, then salvation comes to our house.
Vincentian Stewardship

Wills and Trusts

Each week, we will look at different types of planned giving contributions and the financial benefits to you when your giving plan is in place. This week, we look at wills and trusts.

A bequest is a gift that is designated to a particular charity through a Will or Trust. Upon your death, the charity receives a specific amount of money or property, a percentage of your estate, or the remainder of your estate after expenses.

Making a bequest gives you the satisfaction of knowing that your gift will continue to assist St. Vincent de Paul Parish and the work of the church beyond your lifetime.

In return for your gift, your estate generally receives a charitable deduction, which may reduce or eliminate estate tax.

The Theatre School of DePaul University is staging a unique production of Katori Hall’s play, Our Lady of Kibeho. Performances run from November 1-10, 2019 in the Watts Theatre located at 2350 N. Racine. Fr. Chris Robinson has served as the theological advisor for the play and will be part of a post-performance discussion on Friday, November 8th. Our Lady of Kibeho recounts the apparition of the Blessed Mother to three young Rwandan high school girls in 1981. The girls were warned of the impending genocide Rwanda would experience in 1994. The play does provide some disturbing images yet also captures the beauty of culture meshing with faith.

For more information, you may reach out to Fr. Chris at crobinso@depaul.edu or visit www.theatre.depaul.edu.

I praise you, for I am wonderfully made - Psalm 139

Mass of Remembrance

In November, Christians traditionally remember and pray for those who have passed from this world. This year, we will offer a special Mass of Remembrance on Thursday November 14 at 7pm. If you would like to remember a loved one who has died, and especially if you have suffered such a loss this past year, you are encouraged to attend. During the mass, all will be invited to light a candle from our Easter Candle, the symbol of the Resurrection. These candles remind us of the Light of Christ that never fades. Whether you hold in your heart someone who died last week, or decades ago, please join us in this celebration of the people whom God has given to us as gifts in our lives.

Please join us on Wednesday, November 13, for our Fall Book Discussion!

Our book selection this fall is “The Fisherman’s Tomb: The True Story of the Vatican’s Secret Search” by John O’Neill. The incredible, sometimes shocking, story of the 75-year search and its key players has never been fully told until now. The quest would pit one of the 20th century’s most talented architects, a woman, against top Vatican insiders.

SETON SOUP KITCHEN

Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of paper towels.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

We welcome into the church this weekend:

Conor Joseph, child of Joseph and Lisa Sharpe

Decades ago at my workplace, we had two guys—both short in stature—working in the same department. In truth, I can’t even remember their names, but I think one of them went by Bernie, and let’s call the other guy Sam. Anyway, there was always some good-natured animosity between the two, and many of us who knew them recognized this. Trash-talking, I guess you’d call it. But all friendly and tongue-in-cheek. I cannot recall how exactly this prompted the notion of an organized fight between the two protagonists, but I take responsibility for always adding to that conversation, whenever the opportunity arose, “It’s going to be a short fight.” I was pretty shallow back then.

But perhaps this particular manifestation of my shallowness was inspired by Randy Newman’s novelty song “Short People” that came out a handful of years earlier. The lyrics are a bit rough by today’s PC standards, but perhaps less so when the song was released back in the late 1970’s. Stuff like “Short people got no reason/ Short people got no reason/ Short people got no reason to live/ They got little hands/ Little eyes/ They walk around tellin’ great big lies” and “Short people got nobody/ Short people got nobody to love/ They got little baby legs/ They stand so low/ You gotta pick ’em up/ Just to say hello…” According to Newman in Rolling Stone magazine, “The guy in that song is crazy. He was not to be believed.”

I read somewhere else that Newman was writing about short-tempered and/or close-minded people—or perhaps bigots in general—with irony being his primary voice to bring the message home. Seems likely, given the bridge in the middle of the song hinting at such (“Short people are just the same as you and I/ It’s a wonderful world/ All men are brothers until the day they die”). Either way, I seem to recall him catching some flak for the effort. I’m wondering now, though, if Zacchaeus—the vertically-challenged chief tax collector in today’s Gospel—would have taken issue with it, or if he would have focused his energy on more important things (specifically, like trying to get a glimpse of Jesus as he and his disciples pass through Jericho on their way to Jerusalem).

My money is on the latter. Poor Zacchaeus. Actually, wealthy Zacchaeus, but only through an extortion racket that allowed him to pinch his countrymen for more than just taxes. Per an old lectionary workbook I keep on my shelf, “We can only imagine how the citizens of Jericho must have loathed this little man.” Being “short in stature” (like Bernie and Sam), he is having a hard time seeing Jesus because of the crowd. Accordingly, Zacchaeus runs ahead and climbs a sycamore tree to see Jesus in the flesh, and by Christ’s own words, salvation comes to the tax collector’s house that very day. And perhaps to censure his critics muttering that he hangs out with sinners, Jesus adds, “For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.” Actually, I have another retort for those same close-minded critics that Jesus might have used, given the context of this entire conversation. You know. Something like, “Hey! This is what I do. Don’t you dare be short with me!” Ah. Still shallow, apparently...

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Church. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Derek Swanson, C.M., by phone at 1-800-dePaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
