Jaclyn Hugg is a cradle Catholic who stepped away from the Church in her late teens, but returned through a powerful reconversion experience nearly ten years later. In between sipping green tea lattes, cuddling her dog, and obsessing over her three nephews, you can find her volunteering at the 10:00AM Mass, co-leading the parish’s social media efforts, and helping out at Alpha, our new evangelization program. Jaclyn is passionate about fostering an environment in the Catholic Church in which all people feel seen, heard, and loved as God’s children.

Meetings over coffee. I love them. I try to schedule one or two per week. Perhaps it’s the caffeine (or maybe the Holy Spirit), but the conversations I have with folks over a good cup of joe always fascinate me.

A few weeks ago, I met with a woman for work to discuss her career path. And as you might guess, we met over coffee. To my surprise, this woman had recently lost her husband to a lengthy illness. In the midst of her mourning, she confided in me about an encounter they had with hospice care – an experience in which a social worker explained death in an attempt to comfort the couple. To many, this social worker’s depiction of a bridge that one crosses to get to departed friends and relatives holding baskets of flowers on the other side, might bring about a sense of peace. But isn’t there more to death than that?

In today’s Gospel reading, the Sadducees toss Jesus a hypothetical scenario designed to embarrass him. They cite Moses and tell a tale of seven brothers who die childless, leaving no descendants on Earth. Since they do not believe in the Resurrection, they are waiting for Jesus to wrestle with the question of whose wife the widow would be once she dies, since she was indeed married to all of the brothers.

Instead of getting annoyed and rolling his eyes, Jesus reminds the Sadducees (and us) that the Resurrection is real. He specifically says that there will be a place for “those who are deemed worthy” after passing from this life.

The Resurrection, sisters and brothers, is why we are Christian. The Resurrection is what brings us hope – the hope of being born to a new life here and when we pass away. And whereas many things related to death remain a mystery that our human minds cannot possibly comprehend, we can remind ourselves (and others) of the faithfulness of God. In addition, we can be reassured in the way that Jesus addresses the Sadducees’ riddle, because even though we will no longer retain traditional earthly titles and structures, we can look forward to an even higher dimension of love and communion with the Lord in Heaven.

How are you living out your faith in this life to be prepared and deemed worthy for the next?

As we begin a new week, my prayer for our parish community is that each of us will focus on building oneness with God – through prayer, through service, to opening our hearts to God’s call for our lives. And may we remember these words of Saint Teresa of Calcutta, “Let nothing so disturb us, so fill us with sorrow or discouragement, as to make us forfeit the joy of the resurrection.”
Vincentian Stewardship

Planned Giving

Your ability to arrange a planned gift may be more significant than you first think. Many people of modest means make important gifts to charities of all kinds every day. Most people think of leaving a certain amount of money to their favorite charity by including the gift in their Will. However, giving cash or other assets is just one way to make a bequest.

Year-End Giving: Corporate Match

How can you make your year-end gift at Christmastime to St. Vincent double in value? Check with your company to see if they offer a charitable matching gift program.

Employee Matching Gifts are donations an employer makes to match its employees' charitable contributions. Employee matching gifts of ten are dollar-for-dollar, but some companies will give double or even triple the original donation. Guidelines and amounts vary with each company. Typically, individuals must submit forms to their employers. Check with your Human Resources Department for more information on matching gift donations at your company.

Moms Demand Action is a grassroots movement of Americans (men, women and children) fighting for public safety measures that can protect people from gun violence. We work to pass stronger gun laws and work to close the loopholes that jeopardize the safety of our families. We work in our own communities and with business leaders to encourage a culture of responsible gun ownership. We know that gun violence is preventable and we are committed to doing what it takes to keep families safe.

Mass of Remembrance

In November, Christians traditionally remember and pray for those who have passed from this world. This year, we will offer a special Mass of Remembrance on Thursday November 14 at 7pm. If you would like to remember a loved one who has died, and especially if you have suffered such a loss this past year, you are encouraged to attend. During the mass, all will be invited to light a candle from our Easter Candle, the symbol of the Resurrection. These candles remind us of the Light of Christ that never fades. Whether you hold in your heart someone who died last week, or decades ago, please join us in this celebration of the people whom God has given to us as gifts in our lives.
Encouraging women to build friendship and community in our parish through faith and service.

Please join us today and Wednesday:

Sunday, November 10, 11:00 – 11:30 am Celebration of the Rosary
Wednesday, November 13, Fall Book Discussion
“The Fisherman’s Tomb”, 6:30 – 8:00 pm
All women of the parish are welcome to join our group!

Our book selection this fall is “The Fisherman’s Tomb: The True Story of the Vatican’s Secret Search” by John O’Neill. The incredible, sometimes shocking, story of the 75-year search and its key players has never been fully told until now. The quest would pit one of the 20th century’s most talented architects, a woman, against top Vatican insiders.

REPAIRS COMPLETED!

Thanks to gifts to the To Teach Who Christ Is campaign, we have now completed our building repairs for this calendar year. This included tuck-pointing in the basement to prevent water damage, some roofing repairs to fix some leaks, replacement of some water drains and painting of some windows.

Your commitment to the future of St. Vincent de Paul made this possible. As pledge payments to the campaign come to a close, it is important to know that there are further projects to be done, including repainting and resealing the rest of the stained glass windows and repairs in the bell towers. Over the past four years, the parish has received over $336,000 to do these needed repairs to our beautiful church building. In addition, any payments on your pledges will be returned 100% to the parish since our obligations to the archdiocese have been fulfilled. Thank you for your generous support!

If you have a question about your pledge, please contact the To Teach Who Christ Is office at 312.534.8500 or go to toteachwhochristis.org.

MINISTERS AT MASS

Have you been looking for something to get involved in? Consider this your sign.

The Worship Commission is seeking new volunteers to help serve in all ministries at Mass. If you like public speaking, consider becoming a lector. Or maybe you’re better at one-on-one interactions, consider becoming an Usher or Eucharistic Minister.

If you want to participate, we want you!

You don’t need any prior experience, just a short training/orientation stands between you and this fantastic opportunity. Email Jenna Garcia at jvernon640@gmail.com for more details or to sign up.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SANDWICII WINDOW

Each day, Monday to Saturday, between 80 and 100 guests come to the church to receive a meal. Would you or someone you know like to help? Volunteers arrive at 7:45 in the morning and are finished by 10:15. All of the scheduling is done online. You can find the link by going to https://stvdep.org/outreach/ If you would like more information, please contact Father Jeremy in the parish office.
ON GHOSTS, ANNIVERSARIES, AND RESURRECTIONS

Copyright 2019 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

Remember that old movie Ghost with Demi Moore, Patrick Swayze and Whoopi Goldberg? The plot, per Wikipedia, “centers on a young woman in jeopardy (Moore), the ghost of her murdered lover (Swayze), and a reluctant psychic (Goldberg) who assists him in saving her.” One layer deeper, Swayze’s ghost comes back to warn the Moore character that a guy who she thinks is a friend is really a ne’er-do-well. In my memory, the two leads were boyfriend/girlfriend--not husband/wife--but the film comes to mind today when I consider the life-after-death (aka, resurrection) elements of today’s first reading, and even more so, the Gospel. And when I think of my folks…

The Maccabees passage is hard to read. Here, seven brothers and their mom are tortured because they refuse to violate God’s law by eating pork. Per my Bible, this story is an example of “martyrology.” Meant to be encouraging to God’s people in persecutory times, it adds “gruesome details to the record of tortures, and places long speeches in the mouths of the martyrs.” Like, “After him the third suffered their cruel sport. He put out his tongue at once when told to do so, and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words: "It was from Heaven that I received these; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again." Gruesome I guess...

I chuckle at the Gospel, though, as the Sadducees--out to mock Jesus--question him about resurrection even though they don’t buy into it since resurrection is not found in Mosaic law. And I bet the Sadducees ask Jesus with smirks on their smug faces… "Teacher," they begin. “Moses wrote for us, ‘If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for his brother.’ Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be?” Oh, please. Jesus gets them. Twice! First, he infers their question is senseless, as it’s couched in the present, not in the age to come: “The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise.” Then he confirms resurrection with Scripture the Sadducees themselves subscribe to: “That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.” Hmmm… God “of the living.” I believe deeply that life goes on. I don’t know about Mr. Swayze coming back for Ms. Moore, but my folks--both long gone--are married 71 years. Today. November 10th. Based on our Lord’s response, I guess they won’t be married at the resurrection, but just between you and me, that’s how I see them. And always, always will.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Church. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Derek Swanson, C.M., by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
