The following is a reflection on today’s readings by Pope Francis.

“For you... the sun of justice shall rise, with healing in its wings.”

The words of the Prophet Malachi, which we heard in the first reading, shed light on today’s Jubilee. They come to us from the last page of the last Old Testament prophet. They are words directed to those who trust in the Lord, who place their hope in him, who see in him life’s greatest good and refuse to live only for themselves and their own interests. For those who are materially poor but rich in God, the sun of justice will rise. These are the poor in spirit, to whom Jesus promised the kingdom of heaven and whom God, through the words of the Prophet Malachi, calls “my special possession.” The prophet contrasts them with the proud, those who seek a secure life in their self-sufficiency and their earthly possessions. This last page of the Old Testament raises challenging questions about the ultimate meaning of life: where do I look for security? In the Lord or in other forms of security not pleasing to God? Where is my life headed, what does my heart long for? The Lord of life or ephemeral things that cannot satisfy?

Similar questions appear in today’s Gospel. Jesus is in Jerusalem for the last and most important page of his earthly life: his death and resurrection. He is in the precincts of the Temple, “adorned with noble stones and offerings.” Jesus says that there will be no lack of conflicts, famine, convulsions on earth and in the heavens. Jesus does not want to frighten us, but to tell us that everything we now see will inevitably pass away. Even the strongest kingdoms, the most sacred buildings and the surest realities of this world do not last forever; sooner or later they fall.

Today, however, he questions us about the meaning of our lives. Using an image, we could say that these readings serve as a “strainer” through which our life can be poured: they remind us that almost everything in this world is passing away, like running water. But there are treasured realities that remain, like a precious stone in a strainer. What endures, what has value in life, what riches do not disappear? Surely these two: the Lord and our neighbor. These two riches do no disappear! These are the greatest goods; these are to be loved. Everything else – the heavens, the earth, all that is most beautiful, even this Basilica – will pass away; but we must never exclude God or others from our lives.

Today, though, when we speak of exclusion, we immediately think of concrete people, not useless objects but precious persons. The human person, set by God at the pinnacle of creation, is often discarded, set aside in favor of ephemeral things. This is unacceptable, because in God’s eyes humanity is the most precious good. It is ominous that we are growing used to this rejection. We should be worried when our consciences are anaesthetized and we no longer see the brother or sister suffering at our side, or notice the grave problems in our world, which become a mere refrain familiar from the headlines on the evening news.

What harm we do to ourselves when we fail to notice Lazarus, excluded and cast out! It is turning away from God himself. It is the symptom of a spiritual sclerosis when we are only interested in objects to be produced rather than on persons to be loved. This is the origin of the tragic contradiction of our age: as progress and new possibilities increase, which is a good thing, less and less people are able to benefit from them. This is a great injustice that should concern us much more than knowing when or how the world will end. Because we cannot go about our business quietly at home while Lazarus lies at the door. There is no peace in the homes of the prosperous as long as justice is lacking in the home of everyone.

Planned Giving

Your ability to arrange a planned gift may be more significant than you first think. Many people of modest means make important gifts to charities of all kinds every day. Most people think of leaving a certain amount of money to their favorite charity by including the gift in their Will. However, giving cash or other assets is just one way to make a bequest.

Year-End Giving: Corporate Match

How can you make your year-end gift at Christmastime to St. Vincent double in value? Check with your company to see if they offer a charitable matching gift program.

Employee Matching Gifts are donations an employer makes to match its employees' charitable contributions. Employee matching gifts of ten are dollar-for-dollar, but some companies will give double or even triple the original donation. Guidelines and amounts vary with each company. Typically, individuals must submit forms to their employers. Check with your Human Resources Department for more information on matching gift donations at your company.
The Christmas season is right around the corner and many of you have started your Christmas shopping already. Remember those less fortunate by helping make this Christmas one to remember for a child in need, in our community. The St. Vincent de Paul Gift Tag Program provides gifts to families associated with the Marrilac House. Parents come to the center the weekend before Christmas, and with a $5 donation per household, can choose one gift for each child. Monetary donations collected from families are used for field trips for the children throughout the year. Please consider adding another gift to your list this year!

November 9 through December 8, gift tags will be available after Mass at both the Sheffield and Webster entrances. Return the gifts unwrapped to the altar steps or bring them to the Parish Center no later than Sunday, December 15. If you prefer to shop online, visit our charity registry at https://tinyurl.com/ujpkr5o

Gifts will be delivered directly to the Parish Center.

Volunteers are needed Sunday, December 15, 2019 following the 8:00 a.m. mass, to help sort the gifts in the Parish Center. Please contact Kristin Lapinski at c.k.lapinski@gmail.com to sign up.

Thank you for your help and support in making a child’s Christmas brighter!

On November 16th and 17th this year, the Little Sisters of the Poor from St. Mary’s Home on Lakewood Avenue will visit St. Vincent de Paul Parish for a second collection and share their vocation of mercy to the elderly. They are part of the Homes for the elderly Poor operated by the Little Sisters in 30 countries around the world. The Little Sisters of the Poor have served in Aged Poor in the Archdiocese of Chicago since 1876.

Although the Residents receive Medicaid assistance, Medicaid currently covers less than 50% of the cost of caring for the Residents in a manner that makes them happy and respects their dignity. With the assistance of persons like you, the Little Sisters have ministered to thousands of persons since their foundation in 1839.

The Little Sisters are deeply grateful to each of you and to the Vincentian Fathers who serve our Homes. Sharing the mission of charity to the poorest throughout the world has often touched their hearts. Like the family of St. Vincent many of you will be able to share your memories of loved ones who have been cared for in many of the Homes in this area and in other places.

Please be assured of our daily prayers for you and your loved ones. Your support will enable them to continue their mission of caring for the neediest elderly of every race and religion in a spirit of reverence and of humble service. You are very welcome to come to visit our Homes see first-hand what joy can be given to those persons who in their later years can and do receive what they deserve. God bless you!
REPAIRS COMPLETED!

Thanks to gifts to the To Teach Who Christ Is campaign, we have now completed our building repairs for this calendar year. This included tuck-pointing in the basement to prevent water damage, some roofing repairs to fix some leaks, replacement of some water drains and painting of some windows.

Your commitment to the future of St. Vincent de Paul made this possible. As pledge payments to the campaign come to a close, it is important to know that there are further projects to be done, including repainting and resealing the rest of the stained glass windows and repairs in the bell towers. Over the past four years, the parish has received over $336,000 to do these needed repairs to our beautiful church building. In addition, any payments on your pledges will be returned 100% to the parish since our obligations to the archdiocese have been fulfilled. Thank you for your generous support!

If you have a question about your pledge, please contact the To Teach Who Christ Is office at 312.534.8500 or go to toteachwhochristis.org.

MINISTERS AT MASS

Have you been looking for something to get involved in? Consider this your sign.

The Worship Commission is seeking new volunteers to help serve in all ministries at Mass. If you like public speaking, consider becoming a lector. Or maybe you’re better at one-on-one interactions, consider becoming an Usher or Eucharistic Minister.

If you want to participate, we want you!

You don’t need any prior experience, just a short training/orientation stands between you and this fantastic opportunity. Email Jenna Garcia at jvernon640@gmail.com for more details or to sign up.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SANDWICII WINDOW

Each day, Monday to Saturday, between 80 and 100 guests come to the church to receive a meal. Would you or someone you know like to help? Volunteers arrive at 7:45 in the morning and are finished by 10:15. All of the scheduling is done online. You can find the link by going to https://stvdep.org/outreach/ If you would like more information, please contact Father Jeremy in the parish office.
Today’s readings are all about the future. Well, Malachi for sure (“Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble...”). Paul is future-focused, too, but here, he is exhorting the Thessalonians to be active in their faith instead of idly awaiting the Parousia when Jesus will return (“Brothers and sisters...we hear that some are conducting themselves among you in a disorderly way, by not keeping busy but minding the business of others. Such people we instruct and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and to eat their own food”).

And Jesus is forward-looking as well. Hearing people discuss the temple’s splendor, he says, “...the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone..." The folks ask Jesus when this will occur. He answers, “...many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first...There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky...” Yikes.

With Malachi writing in the mid-fifth century BC, the Israelites think Yahweh is coming right around the corner, so the prophet encourages the people to be constant in serving God lest they be counted among the stubble-destined bad guys. Hundreds of years later (maybe 50 AD?), Paul is writing for a people who also thought the big day—now, of Christ’s return—was imminent, thus the Apostle’s caution against coasting through life (a.k.a, if you don’t work, you don’t eat). But decades later still, Luke’s delivery of Christ’s message seems to temper the immediacy of the anticipated end time by focusing on the long haul (“by your perseverance you will secure your lives”).

Millenniums down the road, of course, we’re still waiting. Yes, Christ’s return could be tomorrow. Or today. But if history is a barometer, it could also be 4019, give or take. Accordingly, I think we all need to focus on our own individual end time, not the Capital E/Capital T End Time, if you catch my drift. And we focus on it by being Christ in the world today, tomorrow, the next day. You know.

While we can. My wife and I are just back from a vacation in California. We spent three days in Yosemite out there, where we took a watercolor painting workshop from California watercolor artist Michael Friedland. He gave us some basic training in technique, then he took us out to a meadow in the distant shadow of iconic Half Dome, and told us to paint. Gail dug right in. I took more time, but eventually found my way to throwing color on the page. Appreciating, though, that I never consider one of these columns complete until I hit the SEND button, I asked Mr. Friedland how a painter knows when his or her work is finished. He joked that it takes two people to paint a watercolor: one to paint it, and the other take the brush away. Ah! As long as we have the brush, then, let’s not worry about the E/T End Time at all. Let’s just keep painting our discipleship the very best we can.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Church. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Derek Swanson, C.M., by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
