Sunday Scripture Reflection

Today we get a break from Ordinary Time in our liturgy to celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. On this day, we remember how Mary and Joseph took Jesus to the temple 40 days after his birth as part of a Jewish thanksgiving and purification ritual. It is also Groundhog Day and this year, Super Bowl Sunday, making today a celebration of many different events. It also falls almost halfway between Christmas and Ash Wednesday, so today we look forward and look back at the same time.

As recounted in the Gospel, the prophet Simeon embraced the baby Jesus and also announced to Mary that he would be “the fall and rise of many in Israel” and that “you yourself a sword will pierce,” a reference to the sufferings Mary would endure in her heart as she watched her son suffer and die. So, today, we recall the great gift of God that came to us in Christ – God in the flesh – to lead us on the way to peace and true joy. And, at the same time, we remember that this way led Jesus – and each of us, his disciples – to Calvary and the Cross. The great love with which Jesus loves us is shown most clearly in this complete self-gift.

We are invited to journey this same road with him, giving of ourselves to God and others. From the time of joy and celebration in the Temple to the sadness and despair of the Cross to the glory and exultation of the Resurrection, we walk with Christ. More importantly, Christ walks with us. As our second reading from the Letter to the Hebrews states, “He had to become like his brothers and sisters in every way, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest before God to expiate the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.” Being vulnerable, Christ is able to draw people to himself. Just as he was vulnerable as a newborn infant, he remained vulnerable all the way to his death on the cross. We are able to embrace him and he is clearly able to understand and support us, who are challenged and struggle with our choices, our faith and our lives. We ask today that we may be aware of Christ’s presence and support in our times of need, that we may continue on our journeys of life with Christ as our constant companion.

SURVEY

Do you attend mass on a regular basis? Are you between the ages of 18 and 38? Jeremy Dixon from DePaul University’s School of Public Service is conducting a research study to learn more about the reasons and motivations that young adults have to participate in the Catholic Church. The goal is to identify reasons that young adults cite to participate in worship.

Participants will be asked to fill out a survey online which includes questions about your religious and spiritual practices and beliefs, as well as your opinions on some social issues. We will also collect some personal information about you such as your age, gender, marital status and parish affiliation. The study should take about 8-10 minutes to complete.

No one under the age of 18 can participate in the research. Research data collected from you will be anonymous.

To participate, go to http://depaul.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_5db2mtvcqJM4Jil

For more information, you can contact him at jdixon20@depaul.edu

SETON SOUP KITCHEN

Vincentian Mission Sunday

The Seton Sandwich Window began in 1980 from the front of the parish center. Since then, the generosity of many people has allowed us to expand the menu and serve guests six days per week. Now we serve over 31,000 meals per year.

The second weekend of every Month will be Vincentian Mission Sunday. We ask that you bring donations to church with you. You can give it to an usher, put it on the altar, or take your donation to the parish office.

This month we are asking for donations of paper towels and sanitizing wipes.

Thank you for your continued support of our Vincentian mission to serve our sisters and brothers in need.

Weddings Celebrated in January:

A CHRISTMAS REPRISE

The Church’s celebration three weeks ago of the Baptism of the Lord signaled the “official” end of the Christmas season. Today’s feast of the Presentation of the Lord seems to extend the Incarnation celebration a bit longer. In fact, some have called this feast a “second Epiphany.”

The first reading recalls the anticipation of Advent, as Malachi writes, “Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me.” The reading from Hebrews reminds us of the Incarnation, proclaiming that Jesus had a “share” in our own “blood and flesh.” The Gospel finds the infant Jesus on his first visit to Jerusalem and his human parents once again surprised and in awe over the events surround his birth.

In the simplicity of the manger, in the grandeur of the temple, in the domesticity of Nazareth, Jesus comes. May we come to know him and so be filled with “wisdom” and the “favor of God.”

Systemic Change, Vincentian Style:
The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

DePaul Student Center, Rm. 314B
(2250 N. Sheffield Ave.)

Begun in 1833 by a handful of students in Paris to serve the poor, today the Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SSVP) exists on 5 continents with 800,000 members and over 1 million volunteers in 153 countries. Based on love of neighbor and face-to-face relationships, this association of lay Catholics ultimately works for systemic change; its projects range from microcredit programs for street vendors in the Dominican Republic to a new well and solar powered water pumping station in drought-ravaged Angola.

Renato Lima de Oliveira has served since 2016 as the international president general of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and has been active as a lay Vincentian for 33 years. He holds an MA in political science (University of Brasilia).

ON SACRIFICE, IN DIFFERENT CONTEXTS
Copyright 2020 by John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

Sacrifice. Hmmmm. In a baseball context, I know about the sacrifice fly. In a pop music context, I know about Elton John’s song, Sacrifice. In an inspirational context, I’m looking right now at the sticky note—written in my own hand and displayed here at my desk—showing the late, great American long-distance runner Steve Prefontaine’s sacrificial insight: “To give anything less than your best is to sacrifice the gift.” And in a simple-but-profound context, I know about the late, great American poet Maya Angelou’s take on sacrifice without her saying the word: “As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands, one for helping yourself, the other for helping others.”

What I don’t get is biblical sacrifice. You know. Bulls, sheep, and goats slaughtered and going up in smoke. I just typed biblical sacrifice into my search engine and this popped up: “When dealing with the Hebrew Bible (Old Testament), early Judaism, and early Christianity, and their wider cultural worlds, ‘sacrifice’ is best defined as the ritualized slaughter of animals and the processing of their bodies in relation to supernatural forces (especially gods).” OK. And per another site: “The offering up of sacrifices is to be regarded as a divine institution. It did not originate with man. God himself appointed it as the mode in which acceptable worship was to be offered to him by guilty man…”

God appointed it? Hey. It’s on the Internet, and you know what folks always say about stuff on the Internet. Still... There's plenty of animal sacrifice going on in Exodus. Then turn a few pages, and per my bible anyway, the very first section of Leviticus is called Ritual of Sacrifices. And here are the first two verses: “The Lord called Moses, and...gave him this message: ‘Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When any of you wishes to bring an animal offering to the Lord, such an offering must be from the herd or from the flock.’” Ensuuing verses say that the animal must be male and sans blemish, and then we get all the ritualistic details. In each instance, the priest shall “…burn the whole offering on the altar as a holocaust, a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.”

When I said I don’t get biblical sacrifice, it’s not that I don’t get it as in, what is it? I don’t get it as in, why is it necessary? And if you were to Google that one, you’d get all kinds of answers, with at least one going way back to the coverings on Adam and Eve after the fall. In my quiet times with Jesus, I ask him, “Did you really have to take the nails? I mean, Thanks, but couldn’t there have been another way?” No answer yet. In the immediate short-term, today we celebrate the Presentation of the Lord, when Mary and Joseph take the young Jesus to the temple in keeping with the law of the Lord (“Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord”) to offer the appropriate sacrifice (“a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons”). Can you believe it? Two turtledoves or two young pigeons. Hardly seems enough for the Lamb who hit a cosmic Sac Fly for all of us. I guess I get biblical sacrifice enough, though, to know that it just doesn’t work that way. Thank goodness. And God.

Celebration of the Sacraments at St. Vincent de Paul

Reconciliation: Saturday afternoon, 4:15-4:50 p.m. in the Reconciliation Room near the Sheffield entrance of the church, or you can call the Parish Center for an appointment.

Baptism: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to register for baptism preparation, which is held on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the Church. You may attend this class either before or after your child is born.

Following preparation and after your child is born, please contact Mary to schedule a baptism date. Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:30 a.m., or during a regular Sunday mass. Baptism is not celebrated during the Lenten season.

Marriage: Please contact Mary Carter (mcarte40@depaul.edu) to discuss the celebration of the sacrament of marriage here at St. Vincent’s, or concerning preparation and prenuptial matters if you are getting married in another parish.

For baptized Catholics, marriage is celebrated within a Catholic church in the presence of a priest or deacon. The first item to plan is the selection of a date and time. In order to celebrate the sacrament of marriage at St. Vincent, one needs to be a registered parishioner for four months prior to discussion of a date. DePaul University faculty, staff, students, and alumni may also celebrate their wedding here, provided either the bride, groom, or both are Roman Catholic, registered at a parish and actively engaged in the practice of their faith. Weddings are celebrated on Saturdays only, at 1:00 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. Weddings are not celebrated during the season of Lent, Holy Week or Saturdays that conflict with other parish events. Mary confirms all reservations for weddings.

Confirmation: Catholic adults who would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are invited to contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu. Confirmation preparation sessions are held Sunday evenings February through May.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a program that prepares adults to receive the sacrament(s) of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Preparation sessions are held on Sundays from 11:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and celebration of the sacraments occurs at the Easter Vigil mass. To learn more or to enroll in the RCIA program, please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

First Communion: Requires two years of classes. Family catechesis (classes for parents and children) religious education classes are held monthly. Please contact Rebecca at rcarmic1@depaul.edu.

Priesthood/Religious Life: Please contact Fr. Derek Swanson, C.M., by phone at 1-800-depaul-1 or by email at vocations@vincentian.org to learn more about becoming a priest or religious.

Anointing of the Sick: To receive the sacrament of anointing of the sick, please contact the Parish Center.
